BRANCH 27, NEW CASTLE

By Dolores Both

New Castle isn't the same anymore! Everyone was German for the weekend! The Oktoberfest brought the spirit of Gemütlichkeit to everyone at Cascade Park the weekend of September 22 and 23. Young and old enjoyed the wonderful music, dancing group, German food, raffles and many vendors. The response from the community was tremendous. It was especially nice to have Joan Miller-Malue and Monica Gilles attending Saturday and party on with us. Our lottery and wine raffle baskets sold very well. We made a record breaking profit this year. The volunteers, as well as guests, all had "much fun!" A special thank you from our President, Marie Benedict, to all the volunteers for helping with the food prep. A big job came together so smoothly and efficiently.

A special thank you to John Fishovitz for making the great signs for our raffle table and to Jane Fishovitz's cousin, Sissy Flak, for designing the lottery and wine baskets. The signs attracted people to our table and the scarecrow with all the lottery tickets stapled on him drew many to take a chance. Also a very special thank you to John Ulrich for helping out in the kitchen with whatever needed done. We couldn't have done it without you.

Marie, Helen Burick and Gudrun Jeffris worked their magic cooking for the windup Oktoberfest on October 6 at the club.

Sunday, October 7, the ladies went to the New Castle Playhouse to see "A Chorus Line." After the play, we had dinner across the street at the new restaurant, The Empire Palace.

Plans are in the process to obtain a speaker from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation regarding the new Driver IDs for the November 1 meeting. Hopefully, they will be able to come.

Faraone Brothers Restaurant is reserved for our Christmas dinner on Wednesday, December 5 at 5:00 pm. Our regular meeting will be Thursday, December 6, 3:30 at the club.

Jane Fishovitz won the door prize. Doris Shenker gave everyone delicious candy filled trick or treat bags to enjoy.

Amotion was made to either acquire or purchase a US flag for the club barroom. Efforts will be made to contact our local representative for a flag. Either way, a flag will be obtained for our club room.

See you all at the next meeting, November 1, 3:30 at the club.

BRANCH 5, LORAIN

By Michael Johnson

We had a smaller turn out than expected for dinner before the start of our regular meeting held on Saturday October 6th. We enjoyed a good meal and was able to leave the restaurant and get to the Slovak Club to start our business on time. Aside from the usual reports of finances and correspondences, no new business to report. November will be our last meeting for the year 2018 and the election of officers for 2019 will be the main order of business. We're urging members to make a special effort to be in attendance on Saturday November 3rd at 7:00 PM at the Slovak Club 2915 Broadway Ave. Lorain.

Final arrangements are being made for the Branch 5 Christmas Dinner being held at Wood and Wine, 38790 Chester Rd, Avon, OH 44011 on Saturday December 1st, 2018 from 6:00 PM - 10:00 PM. You can make your reservation by calling Sister Jeanne Petty at (440) 960-1696 to discuss the details as there are a few meal options to be decided when making your reservation by no later than 11/21/18.

There is no one reported as receiving sick benefits this month which is good news. We want to wish an October Happy Birthday to Sisters Monic Gilles, Ruth Pasta, Janie Mowery, Erica Zgola and Junoir member Jenee Peters. May each of you enjoy your special day!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Joan Miller-Malue

ATS Nat'l President

The TSBA's bowling season has started with its first session in Salem on September 23 and the second session on October 7th in Lorain. This fraternal activity has become a very important part of our organization because it brings members together from various cities each month to enjoy a day of bowling and Gemütlichkeit. We are happy to welcome a few new bowlers this season. This is a fun league and you do not have to be a skilled bowler to participate, just a member that likes to have fun and enjoy meeting others within our fraternal family. I hope next season we can add a few more teams!

You might not have considered food as being connected to family history, but it is. Good food has a way of bringing families together, and anytime families gather—even to eat—family history is made. I was so fortunate to have a loving fraternal member give me a personalized family cookbook that she wrote in memory of her mother. What a loving treasure for her family to have a book that brings back memories of holidays, festivals and other family celebrations meals that brought them together and now to pass on to future generations. I love this gift! Family recipes are certain foods that remind us of warm feelings and happy memories with the ones we love. Family recipes tell a story. They're often connected to people, places, and special memories. They have a who, a where, and a why. You're making family history when you prepare and eat these foods with your family. We have our Saxon Cookbook that includes many recipes of our mothers and grandmothers, but what a great idea for our many wonderful Saxon cooks to prepare a family cookbook that relates to their own family life and memories. It would be a wonderful legacy for your family.

Heritage doesn't consist of money or property, but of culture, values and traditions. Cultural heritage implies a shared bond, our belonging to a community....our fraternal family. It represents our history and our identity; our bond to the past, to our present, and the future. So, it is important that we support our cultural organizations (brass band, dance group and singing societies) that strive to promote our Saxon heritage. When these groups have their cultural events, they need you there to enjoy their program and to share in several hours of Gemütlichkeit. You need to invite your friends that have not experienced such events and spread the word to keep our Transylvanian Saxon culture alive in our communities. Our Local Branches need to support one another in attending each other's events to keep our organization strong! A message to our cultural groups, do not be discouraged if sometimes attendance is low, just continue with your work like your Saxon ancestors did for over 875 years. "Success is not final, failure is not fatal:

it is the courage to continue that counts.”

Transylvanian Saxon Trivia: Broos, a town recognized as one of the original eleven Saxon districts. In 1224 in The Golden Charter of the Transylvanian Saxons, Broos was the most western settlement of the German settlers in Transylvania. It is situated on the river Mureş. The soil was unusually fertile which yielded liberal amounts of wheat, grapes for wine and other kinds of fruit. In history it was an important military stronghold. In 1241, the town was devastated by the Mongol invasion. A quote from a Franciscan monk “...I could not find anything except the bones and skulls of those who were killed, scattered and broken walls of churches...” Within the next few years, King Béla IV would populate the town with new Saxon colonists and settlers. The invasion of the Turks continued to destroy the town in 1438, 1442 and 1479. When the Turks looted the city, they destroyed a large part of the cultivated land and the church that was inside the fortress was damaged. Later the church was rebuilt and taken into possession by the Hungarians. Although the city was a Saxon fortress, the church became the property of reforming Hungarians and the Saxons only received a room beside the church which was used as their place of worship until 1823 when the Saxons built a new church. In 1869, the Saxons established the first bank in Broos, “Brooser Vorschuss-verein.” The story of the Transylvanian Saxons was to build a town with fortified structures to fight off the enemy, to rebuild after battles and to promote economic development. How proud we can be of our ancestors.

Ich wünsche allen einen schönen Tag.

BRANCH 9, CHICAGO

By Rose-Marie Hauer

Our meeting was held on October 1, with fair attendance. President Thut brought the meeting to order and all the reports were read and approved.

Sister Schmidt reported we have no one on the sick list. If you know a member who is sick please contact her.

The German Unity Day 2018 was celebrated by the United German American Societies of Greater Chicago on Sunday, September 30, 2018 at St. Benedict Church in Chicago, Illinois. Our club was represented by Sister Rose-Marie Hauer and Sister Claudia Schmidt who proudly carried our Sachsen flag.

The United German American Societies of Chicago sponsored a bus for an event called "Wunderbar Together-Germany and the US on October 6-7 in Indianapolis, IN. Sister Hauer and Sister Schmidt will go and represent our club and march in the parade.

The Bowling Tournament will be held October 20-21 in Merrillville, IN. We have several members going and we wish them all good luck and to bring home that trophy!

Branch 9 wishes Sister Sara Hartig a Happy Birthday! We hope you had an awesome day!

Christmas Party on December 16, details to follow.

Some of our members

Rose-Marie Hauer and Claudia Schmidt representing Chicago Branch 9 at German Unity Day

were able to wear donated Trachten to the Steuben parade on September 8. What an honor to wear someone else's Tracht and be able to participate! As members are getting older or passing away our Saxon Trachts and shirts are left behind for younger generations. However, these generations may not want to keep these items. Many members do not have Trachts and have asked us if they could borrow one for an event. Our answer is we don't have any. As you know a Tracht is unavailable to buy. So we have come up with an idea at Branch 9 to correct this issue. Rose Hauer and Dede Thut are reaching out and asking any members, past members, and children of members that have a Saxon Tracht or shirt hanging in their closet they do not want to contact us at 773-758-9461. We would like to preserve these costumes and have them available for others to wear to our events

Our next meeting will be held on November 5, at the DANK HAUS.

SALEM RETIREES

By Norma C. Myers

We had a delicious lunch with homemade desserts prepared and served by our caterers. After lunch, our meeting was brought to order by our President Lois Whitacre welcoming everyone. The minutes were read by our secretary Dianne Kuttler and approved. The financial report was given by our treasurer Katie Lederle and approved.

Our Vice President, Dora Lee Sandoe was in charge of our 50-50 drawing which was won by Mary Ann Roth. Our 50 year member dinner for Saturday October 6th was discussed and members had been encouraged to attend. Nancy Stumperth who reports our birthdays and sick list was unable to attend, so President Whitacre asked for any birthdays and Dorothy Hutmacher raised her hand and we all got to sing "Happy Birthday, Dorothy."

A suggestion was made that we need a reporter to show everyone what all we do every month. Another suggestion was made that Norma Byers could do it and everyone seemed to agree! (I've got to quit making these suggestions!) So here I am. You may all be sorry. Helen Aeling read 2 age-related lists (?) that seemed to fit us all and made us laugh so much, we all felt better after eating such a filling lunch.

Our meeting was closed with The Lord's Prayer. Tony Rothbrust got out the Bingo (which we all look forward to winning such big jackpots..... Bob Kekel delivered the bingo cards to the various tables. Francie Tuel, Helen Aeling, Janet Kekel were some of the winners. Well, I'm looking forward to seeing all of you and more on November 7th for lunch and wishing you a happy and healthy month.

BRANCH 25, NEW CASTLE By Jonathan Baisch

The Eintracht Singing Society has been a very busy this Fall. Activities at our famous picnic grounds wrapped up with a last performance by Tobacco Road and Snarfunkle. The club is planning a new pavilion for the picnic grounds that should be a great improvement and add many more memories to our summers spent on the Neshannock Creek. We are now beginning to prepare the picnic grounds for winter and looking to the many great indoor events we'll have this winter.

Oktoberfest this year moved to a new date at the end of September. The event expanded to two days and as always was packed with many wonderful bands, a great dance group, and – of course - the Eintracht Männerchor and Kinderchor. New activities for our guests included a stein holding competition, learning German dance, and a craft vendor fair. Delicious food was prepared by our willing and able volunteers and employees which was often followed by some authentic German black forest cake or strudel. Many thanks go out to the ATS for their participation in our event and especially to ATS president Joan Miller-Malue and Secretary Monica Gilles who were at Oktoberfest much of Saturday!! It was wonderful to see them and to have them bolster our Gemütlichkeit!

The Eintracht Männerchor conducted a Schützenfest in late August for the second time. The event was again well received by our burgeoning hunters! If you have never been to a Schützenfest it is a marksmanship competition using 22 rifles firing at targets that culminates in a competition to shoot apart the Holzvogel – a carved wooden bird. The shooter who destroys the last piece of the Holzvogel is declared the SchützenKönig (or SchützenKönigen)! Many shooters walked away with skill prizes or door prizes and a full belly. This is a great opportunity to engage in some German culture that few know about and is particularly appealing for our region as preparation for hunting season. The event will occur again next year in late August so mark your calendars now for a fun event.

The Männerchor has been busy in September and October singing for multiple Oktoberfests and beginning to prepare for the Christmas performance season! Make an effort to come to one of Eintracht Singing Society events! We have a band at the club many Saturdays and social events every month. We also will have a Christmas Concert December 7th this year featuring the Männerchor, Kinderchor, and hopefully a guest choir. From the Eintracht Singing Society we hope to raise a pint for an "Ein Prosit" with many of our ATS comrades soon!

Elsewhere in this edition of the Volksblatt you will find photos from our Oktoberfest and Schützenfest that show the Gemütlichkeit experienced at these events.

Cilantro pesto with roasted cashews

Tucked into Mexican salsas and guacamoles is the fresh, citrusy flavor of cilantro, a favorite all over the world. A favorite, that is, except for a group of people who are literally genetically disinclined to like it.

Strangely, this herb tastes soapy or even rotten to certain people. According to recent research at Cornell University, this is because the OR6A2 gene in the human body affects how the olfactory receptors handle the high levels of aldehydes contained in the herb. Folks with this gene have an aversion to cilantro.

Cilantro comes from the coriander plant, all parts of which are edible. Only the leaves make up the herb called cilantro. The plant produces dried fruits, known as coriander seeds, that are used as a spice. A native of Iran, coriander grows wild in Western Asia and Southern Europe. It has been cultivated for thousands of years. A half liter of coriander was found in the tomb of Tutankhamen, proving that the ancient Egyptians grew the herb. The Greeks were known to have used coriander since 2000 BC, based on archeological finds. The oldest find of dried coriander was in a cave in Israel dating to 6000 BC.

Here is a fresh take on a pesto recipe that substitutes cilantro for the basil that is traditionally used along with roasted cashews, compliments of ShowMeTheYummy.com

Ingredients:

2 cups of packed cilantro
2 cloves of garlic
1/4 cup of unsalted, roasted cashews (4-8 minutes in a 300 degree oven)
1 tablespoon lime juice
1/2 cup shredded parmesan cheese
1/3-2/3 cup of olive oil (you may substitute oil of your choice)
Salt to taste

Instructions:

1. Place all ingredients into a food processor and pulse until smooth.
2. Scrape down the sides and pulse again.
3. With the processor running, add the oil slowly until desired consistency has been reached.
4. Add salt to taste, combine with pulse, and serve with crackers, chips, pasta, etc.
5. Store covered in the refrigerator.

We remember our Sisters and Brothers who have departed this life in recent days. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the members of the bereaved families.

Exotic history of what makes up "pumpkin spice"

The spices that make up the famed pumpkin spice or pumpkin pie spice have nothing to do with pumpkins, but they have a lot to do with history.

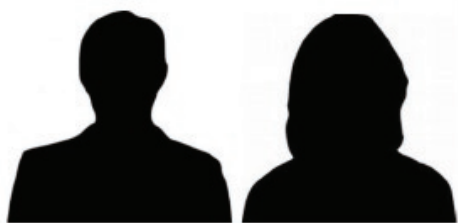

The ingredients -- more or less -- for pumpkin spice include: Nutmeg, cinnamon, allspice, cloves, and ginger.

In the 15th century, these spices were worth more than gold to Europeans. Middle Eastern and North African sailing cultures had a monopoly on these spices (except for allspice). They kept their spice sources top secret, weaving tales of exotic locations guarded by terrifying snakes, and they became fabulously wealthy.

But, the economics of the spice monopoly failed as the price of buying spices soared 32,000 percent. That made hunting for the secret islands financially viable. So, Europeans set out to find the spices.

In 1492, when Columbus sailed the ocean blue, he was looking for spices, not gold. Famously, Columbus didn't find the spice of the Indies, but others did. By the 16th century, the Dutch and English monopolized spice markets.

Every Day is Frightening Without Life Insurance

It is the season for the ghosts, goblins and witches to bring us fear of the supernatural and paranormal this Halloween season. For many people the feeling of fright extends beyond the Halloween because they do not have plans in place to protect their family's financial security.

Life insurance protects your heirs from the unknown and helps them through an otherwise difficult time of loss.

It is terrifying to know that four in ten adults do not have life insurance to protect their families.

If you don't have live insurance and the unthinkable were to happen to you, your loved ones might:

- Struggle to keep up with monthly bills.
- No funds to send your children to college.
- Go into debt to pay your funeral expenses.
- No funds for child care or elderly care
- Not enough funds for good health care

It can be haunting!
