BRANCH 5, LORAIN By Michael Johnson

There's not much of the year 2022 left as we can feel the change in evening and morning temperatures. By the time you get your issue of this month's Volksblatt we'll all have fallen back an hour and another Daylight Savings Time will be history.

Branch 5 members met on October 17 for our monthly meeting and took care of business as usual. We discussed the Christmas dinner for our members, who can also bring 1 guest if they so choose. On December 3 we'll meet at Amber Oaks, 4798 Lake Road, Sheffield Lake where we'll join together in festive spirit starting at 6:00 p.m. If you wish to attend, you must RSVP by November 25 by calling Jeanne Petty at 440-670-3368 to reserve your spot.

This month we're also seeing two members who went on the sick list. Sister Robin Johnson and Sister Betty Ralph are both under a doctor's care at this time for different illnesses. We're hoping and praying that each will be restored to good health soon.

We want to extend a Happy Birthday greeting to my mom, Sister Katherine Elaine Johnson, my daughter and her mother Sisters Julianna Piller and Robin Johnson, Brothers Mark Jones, Robert Tomusko and junior members Reese Bond and Cole Sergeant. May you all enjoy your special day the way you like.

Our next meeting is this month on Monday, November 21 at 7 p.m. We hope to see many of our members attend as we will be voting on officers for the coming year 2023 as part of our business for the evening.

Have a Happy Thanksgiving as well and stay healthy.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Denise Aeling Crawford
ATS Nat'l President

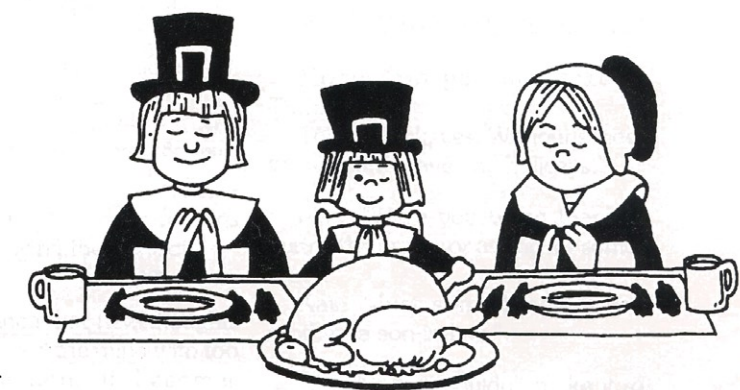

Thank you to the Youngstown Saxon Bowlers, the Youngstown Saxon Club, and Tom Simon for organizing and hosting the 2022 ATS Open-Bowling Tournament on Saturday and Sunday, October 29th and 30th. Winners in the various categories are on the back page of this issue. I believe that everyone who attended had a good time whether they bowled well or not. We had bowlers from various branches in four states. Thank you to those who traveled from Chicago, IL and Merrillville, IN to be with us. The tournament next year will be in Merrillville, IN. Thank you to the Merrillville Saxon Bowlers for putting in a bid to host this ATS event. Plan now for a Friday morning bus trip to Indiana. The bus will start in New Castle, PA and make a few stops in Ohio to pick up additional bowlers. We will return late Sunday evening. The bus trip is always a fun time and we look forward to it.

November 11th is Veteran's Day. This day is a U.S. federal holiday dedicated to American Veterans of all wars. If you see a Veteran, please thank them for their service. In addition, thank them all year long, not just on Veteran's Day! While reading the Saxon Memoir stories that have been submitted to us, we noticed a common theme. Many of the stories talked about America being the "land of opportunity". This country was not created without sacrifice. It is still the land of the free, because of the brave. Thank you to all who have served!

Do you know why we vote on a Tuesday in November? By the time you read this, Election Day will be over. I hope that everyone voted. Voting is an important right that is in our Constitution that you should exercise. I feel that if you didn't vote, then you shouldn't be able to complain about things afterwards. Sometimes one vote can make all of the difference. The reason that we vote on a Tuesday in November stems from the agricultural makeup of 19th century America. In the 1800s, most citizens worked as farmers and lived far from their polling places. People often traveled at least one day to vote. Lawmakers needed to allow a two-day window for Election Day. Weekends were not good since most people spent Sundays in church and Wednesdays were not good as that was usually market day for the farmers. With both of those days in mind, Tuesday was chosen as the first and most convenient day of the week to hold elections. The farm culture also explains why Election Day is in November. Elections in spring and early summer interfered with the planting season and late summer and early fall overlapped the harvest season. That left the late fall month of November as the harvest was complete by then and before the arrival of harsh winter weather.

Until next time....

At Thanksgiving dinner: Who will say grace?

Being chosen to say grace at a big family dinner is always an honor. Often, however, no one is chosen, though the prayer is expected and anticipated by all. A Thanksgiving meal prayer makes the occasion special and makes your friends and family feel blessed.

When the question is asked, “Who will say grace?”, you can volunteer, even though you may not be the most “religious” person in the family (the one who is will be pleased to have you step forward).

The best prayers are those that come from the heart rather than from a prayer book. A prayer could begin with something as simple as, “For all our family and friends, we thank you, Lord.” Or “We pray your blessings on our family and friends, and on those who could not be here today. We thank you for our many blessings and for this opportunity to be together. Bless this food and those who prepared it. Amen.”

A few tips: Keep it short so the food doesn’t get cold. Keep it simple. Avoid any further philosophizing and don’t use it as an opportunity to ask God to correct anyone’s faults. Be humble.

If it is a buffet-style dinner, offer the prayer while everyone is ready to go through the line. If it is a sit-down dinner, asking everyone to hold hands is a nice touch.

BRANCH 8,
ALLIANCE
By Lesley Reed

Our latest meeting of the Branch 8 Saxon Ladies Lodge was held Wednesday, October 19th. We had 7 members present and 6 members excused. Our hostesses for the evening were Linda Gelsinger, Barb Esterly and Helen Aeling. The attendance award recipients were Mary Craven and Linda Gelsinger. Birthdays are being celebrated this month by Alice Freeders and Lesley Reed. We have one member, Penny Zeedrich, who has a November birthday and one member with a December birthday, Karen Kinser.

New business discussions began with revisiting our decision to forego providing a meal during future meetings. A new motion was introduced to provide take-out pizza for both our members and the members of our men’s lodge at each meeting and this was agreed upon unanimously. Barb Esterly volunteered to provide paper goods and order pizza delivery for each meeting. We thank her for taking on this responsibility!

We then moved to the election of officers for 2023. A motion was made to retain the slate of current officers and the motion was seconded and carried. The officers will remain as President, Helen Aeling, Vice President, Barb Esterly, Treasurer, Denise Crawford, and Secretary, Lesley Reed.

Under Old Business, it was motioned and agreed upon to waive 2023 dues for members Jan Ossler and Dorothy Brunie. Lastly, everyone was given an opportunity to choose their entrée to be served at our holiday dinner being held on November 12th at 4:00 p.m. at the Hart Mansion restaurant in Minerva. Looking forward to seeing everyone there!

Recognizing the Plymouth Thanksgiving How the Pilgrims became America's forefathers

The town of Plymouth in Massachusetts has not always been well-known. The town and the Pilgrims who created it were largely forgotten for 200 years until December 22, 1820.

On that day, the great orator Daniel Webster traveled to Plymouth from Boston to take part in the bicentennial celebration of the Pilgrims' landing. So great was his speech that it became known as the "Plymouth oration."

Before 1,500 people seated themselves on wooden benches in the meetinghouse, he said, in part:

"We have come to this Rock to record here our homage for our Pilgrim Fathers; our sympathy in their sufferings; our gratitude for their labors, our admiration of their virtues; our veneration for their piety, and our attachment to those principles of civil and religious liberty..."

"We listen to the chiefs in council ... We are filled with reverence and admiration for the mild dignity of Carver and Bradford, the decisive military air of Standish, the devout Brewster, the enterprising Allerton..."

Webster's oration started the Pilgrims' elevation to their status as forefathers of the nation. At that time, the recently independent America needed an event and a place that rooted the country to its founding history.

They needed a founding location. Jamestown in Virginia was a candidate, as was Plymouth in Massachusetts. Jamestown had an advantage because it was founded 13 years before the Pilgrims landed. But Plymouth offered a moral authority, thanks to the words of Daniel Webster.

Though the great Thanksgiving feast occurred 401 years ago in November of 1621, we still follow the Pilgrims' lead in being thankful for our blessings on Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving fun facts

Benjamin Franklin wanted the turkey to be the national bird of the U.S. In a letter to his daughter, he said the bald eagle had bad moral character.

Minnesota produces most of the 46 million turkeys prepared at Thanksgiving in the U.S. every year.

Green bean casserole, invented by the Campbell Soup Company, is served in 30 million households, but 24 percent of diners hate it.

Breaking the wish-bone originated with the Etruscans, an ancient Italian civilization. Birds were thought to be able to predict the future. They actually kept the bones intact to use the birds' powers for more wishes.

HUMOR

Reaching the end of a job interview, the Human Resources Officer asks a young engineer fresh out of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, "And what starting salary are you looking for?" The engineer replies,
"In the region of $1,000,000
a year, depending on the benefits package." The interviewer inquires, "Well, what would you say to a package of five weeks vacation, 14 paid holidays, full medical and dental, company matching retirement fund to 50% of salary, and a company car leased every two years, say,
a red Corvette?" The engineer sits up straight and says,
"Wow! Are you kidding?" The interviewer replies, "Yeah,
but you started it."

How a bad decision can ruin your life

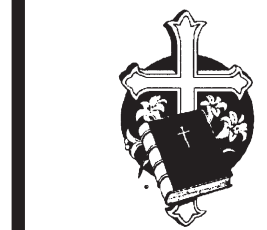

The things that can ruin
your life have been passed down through the ages.
They are not secrets.

You can find a list the things you ought not to do everywhere, in the Bible's commandments, and ancient wisdom all religions,
wise sayings, and boring
life advice from grandma.

Lies, cheating, stealing, murder, drink, drugs,
gambling, debt, impulsiv-ity, sloth, promiscuity -- all can lead to danger and ruin, sometimes as a slow drip
and sometimes in a sudden end.

Unlike the circumstances of your birth, decisions are things you control and they can make your circumstances infinitely worse or dramatically better, notes
performance coach Blaz Kos.

You can make a very bad
single decision that changes

We remember our Sisters and Brothers who have

is extended to the members of the bereaved families.

What great costumes the children and adults had on for the Sachsenheim's Halloween Party. We had judging of costumes in four age groups. The winning costumes in ages 5 and under were Richman Cook as Captain America and Adrian Schaef as a Ninja. Ages 6 – 10 winning costumes were Jameson Donnellan as a police officer with arrested criminal (his dad) and Katie Hanek as Half Angel/Half Devil. Costume winners in age group 11 and up were Cowan Johnson as a Giant Dinosaur and Katelynn Pechatsko as a Mermaid. Adult winners were Karen and Bill Pearson as Minion & the Gru and Alexis Perry as a Raven. We want to thank our MC Katelynn Pechatsko for doing an excellent job and to all those who had helped set up for the party and those that helped clean up. It was a very enjoyable evening and we thank everyone who came to make it a Happy Halloween event.

We are now working on the Christmas party that will be held on Saturday, December 10th. The party will start at 1:00 p.m. this year. Invitations will be sent out to our junior members. Santa is requesting that you make your reservations early so that he can assure a gift to each child. Look for your invitation in the mail.

We congratulate the Cleveland Saxon Dance Group on another lovely Traubenfest. The hall was strung with grapes for those that dared to steal a bag. The children and adult group had performed beautifully and it was great to hear Horst Botsch play for their performances. The group practices at the Sachsenheim on Friday evenings and always welcome new members. Contact President Chrissy Roppelt if you are interested.

The Cleveland West Bowlers had an enjoyable weekend at the ATS Open-Bowling Tournament. We want to thank Youngstown for hosting the event. It was great to see our friends from the various cities. Next year's tournament will be held in Merrillville, Indiana. So be prepared for a fun bus ride to our Hoosier friends.

The winners in the last drawing of our 250 Club were: Jay Machado, Rob Hanek, George Spack, Daniel Dzurick, Hella Gottschick and Hubert Haller. Congrats to the winners and good luck to our members in the next drawing.

Our next Branch meeting will be held on Monday, November 21, 2022 at 7:00 p.m. After the meeting we will have our annual Turkey Trot. We look forward to seeing you on November 21.

How Mario got his name

In 1981, the video game company Nintendo rented a warehouse space in Tukwila, Washington. The company was on the verge of a revolution in gaming with its handheld devices, but at that time, it wasn't the $16 billion a year company it is now.

Nintendo staff was working on a new plumber character for its Donkey Kong game. They called him Jumpman, but they wanted a real name.

Meanwhile, the company fell behind on its warehouse rent and aroused the ire of Mario Segale, a Seattle businessman who owned the warehouse. He showed up to set the upstart company straight. Segale dressed down the company president in front of the staff and when he left, finally convinced he would get his rent, the staff had a name.

Mario Segale died in 2018, a wealthy businessman in construction who wanted to be known for his achievements, not necessarily his connection to a game character. He once said he was still waiting for the royalty check. But, evidently, not the rent.

Encouraging results in Alzheimer's drug trial

The pharmaceutical companies Biogen and Eisai are developing a new drug to slow the rate of cognitive decline among patients with Alzheimer's disease, according to the New York Times. The drug, called lecanemab, reduced cognitive decline by 27 percent in a recent clinical trial. Previously, Biogen released the controversial drug Aduhelm, widely considered a commercial failure after Medicare restricted its coverage.
