SIEBENBÜRGISCHES KULTURZENTRUM
SCHLOSS HORNECK E.V.

The ATS wants to thank all of those Members and Branches who have donated to the Saxon Relief Fund and to Schloss Horneck. The ATS recently remitted those funds to Germany, as well as adding an additional donation from the ATS to each.

Below is the Thank You received from Schloss Horneck.

Dear Denise,

I can confirm that we have received the funds and that we are so pleased knowing the “overseas Saxons” are both thinking about us and supporting us financially.

We’ll use a part of the funds for the yearly membership fee and for maintenance works regarding the castle which we need to take care about on an ongoing basis.

Recently we organized and hosted a cultural event called “Sommerliche Kulturtag auf Schloss Horneck” (Summer cultural days on Schloss Horneck). At this event that was sponsored by the Kulturwerk (an organization that is sponsored by the Bavarian state) we were celebrating the opening of the “Carpathe theme wall” and the 20 years anniversary of the death of Ernst Irtel, a famous Saxon musician who lived on the castle.

Target for the Schlossverein is both to maintain the castle and make it for the Saxons a point of meeting and nurturing the Transylvania heritage.

I hope we’ll see you soon in Gundelsheim. You and your colleagues are more than welcome!

Please send cordially greetings on behalf of the board of the Schlossverein.

Warmest greetings,

Dr. Axel Froese

Helft uns helfen

August 2023

Ladies and Gentlemen,
Dear fellow countrymen,

Your donations and grants, coming regularly, are proof of trust for us and our work for the Sozialwerk der Siebenbürger Sachsen. Trust makes us feeling honored on the one side, on the other we are aware that there is an obligation to make every effort possible to continuously help those who are needy, looking for a helping hand.

The unbowed commitment of our community, to help the weakest, makes us happy, gives us power and hope.

People who are dependent of our help and accompaniment get encouraged, new perspectives and hope due to your donations. No matter if we deal with big amounts or little inputs - every Dollar is a contribution to a better life for our needy fellow countrymen.

After the years we had to fight against the pandemic, we are happy that many donators turned back to continue the Siebenbürgenhilfe. This again is a strong proof for the good common spirit which is one of the characteristics of our community of solidarity.

I will take this opportunity to thank you from the bottom of my heart!

Due to your contributions we are able to continue our work with diaconal institutions as well as the retirement homes, with many individual and institutional help actions.

The Sozialwerk could help the weakest of our community efficiently and fast because of the great support of our partners in Siebenbürgen. Therefore, here comes a “great thank you” for all those helping down there, so that our support and assistance reaches the needy, safely and as fast as possible.

Thank you all for your fidelity and empathy. All the best for you.

Take care and stay active.

yours sincerely

Dr. Johann Kremer
Chairman Sozialwerk der Siebenbürger Sachsen e.V.

PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

By Denise Aeling Crawford
ATS Nat’l President

It is back to school time! While driving, please watch out for the little ones as they walk to and from school or for the school bus to pick them up and drop them off. They’re not watching out for you so you need to watch out for them.

Some of our Local Branches, who take the summer months off from meetings, are now getting back into the swing of things. Please plan to attend your monthly Branch Meeting. Events are showing up in the Fraternal Calendar. Please take a few minutes to look these over and mark your calendar for the dates. Most events are advertised well enough in advance for you to be able to attend the event. Better yet, offer to help. Feel free to visit another Branch and participate in their events. They will be happy to see you.

Between this issue and the next is Labor Day, Grandparents Day and Patriot Day. Labor Day falls this year on Monday, September 4. It is viewed as the unofficial end of summer, even though the Autumn Equinox and the official end of summer and beginning of Autumn will be on September 23rd. National Grandparents Day falls on Sunday, September 10th (first Sunday after Labor Day). September 11 is Patriot Day or 9/11 Remembrance Day. These days are all special in their own way. Other quirky days in September include National Bowling League Day on September 3 (think TSBA!); Eat an Extra Dessert Day on the 4th; National Beer Lover’s Day on the 7th; National Teddy Bear Day on the 9th; National Cream-Filled Donut Day on the 14th; International Talk Like a Pirate Day on the 19th; National Chocolate Milk Day on the 27th; and National Love People Day on the 30th. Some serious observances for September include National Suicide Prevention Week (3 – 9); National Days of Prayer and Remembrance (9 – 11); Constitution Week (17 – 23); Baby Safety Month; Library Card Sign-Up Month; National Childhood Cancer Awareness Month; and National Courtesy Month. I think there is something for everyone in the month of September!

Did you know the movie The Wizard of Oz first opened in theaters on August 25, 1939? Since that opening day in theaters around the United States, it has become one of the best-loved movies in history. L. Frank Baum’s 1900 children’s novel The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is the basis for the movie. Judy Garland starred as the young Kansas farm girl Dorothy, who, after being knocked unconscious in a tornado, dreams about following a yellow brick road, along with her faithful dog Toto, to the Emerald City to meet the Wizard of Oz. The scenes in Kansas were filmed using traditional black and white film, while Oz appeared in vivid Technicolor, a relatively new film process at that time. The film was nominated for an Academy Award in the Best Picture cat-

YOUNGSTOWN SAXON RETIREES

By Ro Dundon

We reported in the July edition our next meeting would be at Lucy's pavilion. Well not so!! Our meeting was held at Bob Evans on Route 46 in Austintown. We have never met there but it passed muster and we will be back.

We were all pleased to see Dom at the meeting and I now he was pleased to be there. Also Marnie, my sister, came for lunch. We hope she comes back whenever she can. Missing was Bev, Barb, Lisa and Rosemarie. You were all missed and hope you can make it for September's meeting.

Now for the reason we did not have our expected and looked forward picnic. Well...

Rosemarie, the planner and go getter for supplies, had the nerve to fall and break her hip while playing Bocce. Who would have thought Bocce was such a physical game...it's not like it Soccer. We are really sorry and hope you have a fast recovery.

Knowing you we will see you back in action in no time.

The Birthday Gal for the month is our President Diana. Before we adjourned we sang (??) Happy Birthday to her. We hope she had a wonderful time on her special day.

The group will be back to Bob Evans in Austintown for the September 14th meeting. Come 11:30 -12:00. If anything changes Diana will give a call. By that time schools will be in session. Time has gone so fast and the older we get, the faster it goes. Everyone stay happy and healthy.

Until we meet again — As usual — It's RO egory. However, it lost to Gone With The Wind. The movie won a Best Oscar song for "Over the Rainbow", sung by Judy Garland. She also won a special award at that year's Oscar for the Best Juvenile Performer. Production on the film began when Walt Disney's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs (1937) showed that films adapted from popular children's stories and fairytale folklore could still be successful. Filmed at MGM Studios in Culver City, California, the movie was a modest box-office success when it was first released. It did not make a profit until it was re-released in 1949. It was MGM's most expensive production at that time. Its popularity grew after it was televised for the first time in 1956. An estimated 45 million people watched that inaugural broadcast. As it has aired countless times since then, it is not surprising that the U.S. Library of Congress states it is the most seen film in history. Some of the movie's famous lines, including "There's no place like home" and "Toto, I've a feeling we're not in Kansas anymore" are well known to several generations of movie watchers.

Until next time....

Ticks can fly?

Those icky, dangerous, blood-sucking ticks are lazy and they can't jump. But they can fly -- sort of.

According to a study in the journal Current Biology, static electricity generated by animals moving around creates electrical charges, the same as when you rub a balloon on your head and your hair stands up straight. This static electricity lifts ticks up toward the charged forces present on animals.

CELEBRATIONS

Please join me in wishing Christine and Todd Oehlman (September 5) and Jill and Don Blum (September 9) very Happy Wedding Anniversaries. Alles Gute zum Hochzeitstag!

COLUMBUS BRANCH 10, COOKOUT AUGUST 21st.

Olga Hesch was our gracious host at her home. Everything was set up wonderfully. We had brats, hamburgers and a great assortment of dishes and desserts prepared by our members. We welcomed a number of guests and were extremely happy to see John Gellner in attendance. John graced us with his usual humor, which we had truly missed. We had pop, water, beer and were treated to George Lassel blending two of his home made wines, which everyone enjoyed. We had several guests, which we hope to see at future events.

We sang Happy Birthday to Sophie Untch and Happy 50th Anniversary to Mike Roth. Our singing was accompanied by George Lassel and his harmonica, which is always fun to hear.

We want to thank Mike Roth and Sara Alzner-Brown for the food preparation, all the members for bringing such delicious food and for Sara in coordinating the event.

It was a hot day but everyone totally enjoyed the time we spent together as a Saxon family. We had German music in the background to keep our minds off of the heat. This has become a regular event and we hope to continue the friendship and gathering of fellow Saxons in the future.

HUMOR

A boss and an employee were having a conversation.

Boss: Do you believe in life after death?

Employee: Certainly not! There's no proof of it!

Boss: Well there is now! After you left early to go to your uncle's funeral, he came here looking for you!

BRANCH 18, SALEM By Barbara Spack

The next meeting on September 11 will be very important as we will be looking for all input regarding the invitation from Branch 19 to merge. This will be an opportunity for members to ask any remaining questions regarding the merger and to finalize discussion. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. and after the meeting concludes we will meet jointly with Branch 19. Please put this on your calendar and try to attend as everyone's questions are important on this issue and we want as much membership participation in the decision as possible.

At the joint social on July 14, the Salem Saxon Scholarships were awarded. The members and guests enjoyed grilled Saxon sausage and a variety of side dishes provided by the members. Art Maroscher grilled the meat which was donated by the Scholarship fund. We awarded nine $1000 scholarships to a highly qualified group of high school graduates. The Carole Flick Memorial Scholarship was given to Johnathon Kidd of Salem High School. The Dr. Lorie Jean Roth Memorial Scholarships were given to Jackson Johnson of Salem, and Christian Martig of West Branch High School. The other recipients were Ronin Gallo of Salem, Reese Miller of Salem, Allison Zion of West Branch, Anna Curry of West Branch, Emily Sprowl of West Branch, and Haley Hazelbaker of West Branch. Also recognized were ATS Scholarship winners Christian Martig who received a Freshman scholarship, and Erika Miller of Florida Gulf Coast University for a Continuing Education scholarship. Congratulations to these recipients and best wishes for their future success.

Greetings and well wishes are being sent to Flo Spack, Mary Ann Roth, Kathy Schumacher, and Pat Hall who are in care facilities, and to Katie Lederle who is recovering from surgery.

The 50-year dinner plans are in the works and invitations will be sent out soon. We will be welcoming new 50-year members Norma Byers, Diane Kirchgessner, Kathryn Klein Vincent, Gaylene Kekel Englert, and Debbie Ulrich Emelo at the dinner on October 7.

Another reminder that the September meeting time is 7:30 p.m. on the 11th followed by the joint meeting with Branch 19.

We would like to congratulate Ivan Bosnik and Luke McGivern on receipt of the Br. 30 Scholarships this year. Good luck to these fine young men.

We wish Rosemarie Zarmy, second vice president, a speedy recovery and quick healing.

Other dates to remember: the Children's Christmas Party December 3 and the May ATS Convention in 2024, May 18, 19 2024.

If you are interested in joining a German language class, please contact the office instead of Rosemarie Zarmy at this time.

The Pork/Kraut will try a hybrid dinner this month, take-out and eat in via the Ballroom. The fee of $12.00 is the same for both.

Since thirty of our members have passed away this year, too large an amount, why don't each one of us try to get one person, either new or social, to join the Youngstown Saxon Club to carry on their memories and be a part of a fine organization.

BRANCHES 14 AND 17, CANTON By Cheryl Schnebelen

Welcome to fall in Ohio. We hope everyone is doing well and survived the summer in good shape. The Canton Saxons will be having our next luncheon meeting on Sunday, September 17, at 1:00 p.m. at Meyers Landing Bar and Grill in Meyers Lake Plaza.

We still have available financial assistance to any current, past, or direct descendants of the ladies lodge, so if you know of those in need, please let us know. You can contact me by email at sherlee5@aol.com, text or phone at 330-312-5112, and I will forward your request on to others in the branch. We are looking forward to hearing from you and please join us for our next meeting at Meyers Landing on Sunday, September 17, at 1:00 p.m..

Home Tip

If you have a big cleaning project at home you've been avoiding, try breaking it down into chunks. Instead of trying to find a day to tackle the job, give yourself 15 minutes a day. Use a timer to keep yourself on track. Besides giving you a practical way to manage the job, using a timer also can motivate you. Knowing you only have 15 minutes can make you hustle through the work.

Foods you won't find on the menu in the US

Adventurous diners will have to travel outside the U.S. to try any of these banned foods. If you do happen to find one on a restaurant menu stateside, it's probably not the real deal. But if it really is authentic, you may still want to pass -- there are no safety inspections or food handling standards for banned items.

Puffer fish

- Epoisse de Bourgogne cheese: This earthy and pungent cheese, made from unpasteurized milk, pairs well with Belgian white ale, and is notorious for listeria contamination. Epoisse can be imported -- but only if it's less than 60 days old.

- Horse meat: Slightly sweet and similar to beef, goes well with garlic butter, and potentially full of medications that are toxic to humans. The federal government prohibits the commercial slaughter of horses for human consumption, though private slaughter is permitted in many states. But you still might want to skip it -- horses raised in the U.S. are broadly considered unsafe for human consumption because of the medications they routinely receive.

- Fresh ackee: This pear-shaped pinkish-red fruit boasts a delicate and lightly sweet flavor, tastes lovely in savory preparations, and is highly toxic until it's ripe. Unripe ackee contains the toxin hypoglycin, which causes dangerous drops in blood sugar, vomiting, and sometimes death. The U.S. only permits the import and sale of canned or frozen varieties.

- Casu martzu: This traditional Sardinian sheep's milk cheese boasts a strong flavor and spicy aftertaste, marries perfectly with a bold red wine, and contains thousands of live maggots. Casu martzu sales are illegal in all of Italy, the whole European Union, and the U.S., but some scientists (and many Sardinian locals) argue that the cheese is safe when eaten correctly. Even if it doesn't tempt you, casu martzu represents a fascinating look into how the common people of the Roman Empire lived and used unexpected ingredients to create extraordinary things.

- Puffer fish: With mild-tasting white flesh that can be eaten raw or cooked, puffer fish (also called fugu) pairs well with a variety of accompaniments and contains a poison 1200 times more powerful than cyanide, has no antidote, and kills around 100 unlucky diners each year. The U.S. doesn't ban all fugu outright, but any legal meat must be processed by licensed chefs in Japan before importation, inspected and approved upon arrival in the U.S., and prepared again by one of only about a dozen specially certified U.S. chefs before diners can dig in. Is fugu worth the risk and the hassle? Maybe, maybe not -- one diner described it as "bland" to the New York Times.

Labor Day: Summer's last fling has a serious past

Nap in the hammock, have a barbecue, or dive into the city swimming pool. Whatever you do, you are celebrating the last weekend of summer, though the calendar might disagree.

This year marks the 115th celebration of Labor Day. After much ado for many years, President Grover Cleveland signed the Labor Day proclamation in 1894. It is the only holiday in the year that does not focus on an individual or a national event.

The path to this proclamation was not a simple one. Rather, it was marked with hard work and risks from labor leaders and many thousands of workers.

While the work toward a Labor Day began years before, a celebration by the Knights of Labor in 1882 brought the cause to the public's attention.

More than 20,000 demonstrators paraded in New York City. Many carried signs that said "8 hours for work, 8 hours for rest, 8 hours for recreation."

In addition to a day of rest for workers, they marched for better working conditions.

The Labor Day movement spread from east to west over the following years. In 1887, Colorado was the first state to declare Labor Day a state holiday. By 1893, more than half of the states had an official Labor Day.

Then, a bill for a national Labor Day was introduced in Congress. When President Cleveland signed it on June 28, 1894, he thought it was a good political move. But he was not reelected.

Student loan debt varies widely

Here's a number that seems huge. Americans collectively have more than $1.7 trillion in federal and private student loans.

While 54 percent of Americans do not have student loan debt, according to a GoBankingRates survey, if you are between the ages of 18 to 23, you probably do. Just 39 percent of this age group do not have any debt.

However, 31 percent young people with student loans owe less than $10,000. About 16 percent owe more than $10,000 and less than $20,000.

Here is what the GoBankingRates survey found:

- 31% owe less than $10,000
- 16% owe $10,001 to $20,000
- 11% owe $20,001 to $30,000
- 9% owe $30,001 to $40,000
- 4% owe $40,001 to $50,000
- 4% owe $50,001 to $60,000
- 3% owe $60,001 to $70,000
- 4% owe $70,001 to $80,000
- 6% owe $80,001 to $90,000
- 6% owe $90,001 to $100,000
- 6% owe more than $100,000

One surprising finding: Student loan borrowers over the age of 65 are likely to have the highest student loan debt, with 72 percent owing between $20,000 and $40,000 and 17 percent owing up to $100,000.

Older people have student loan debt for a number of reasons: They are sending their children and grandchildren to college; they are taking advanced degrees; and they are attending college themselves.

Dunesdorf /Daneş / Dános

The small tower-less late Gothic church in Dunesdorf was built in 1506. The tower was much later erected in 1927, as well as its defence levels, probably as a sign of self-assertion towards the 1918 new Romanian state and as a symbol for the 800 years of Saxon history in Transylvania. From the original defence wall only a few remains on the south side and a gate tower with a small watchtower are still preserved. The inner furniture dates back to different time periods: the baptismal font and the pulpit are Baroque, the altar is from 1878 and the organ from 1920. The vault covering the church's hall was built in 1868.

Place and surroundings

The village of Dunesdorf, located few miles west from Sighişoara (Schässburg) was documented for the first time mid-14th Century. The reports from the following years describe many difficulties and misery. Due to the great poverty of the place, between 1503 and 1507 a tax rebate was documented. Around 1507 the village burned down completely. Less than 50 years later, the unfortunate happening occurred again in 1555. At the beginning of the 17th Century the place got broke as result of civil wars and the number of the local farmers fell in just 15 years from 90 to 7. Because of the slow development of the village, tax exemption and other benefits were offered starting with 1656 to any colonist willing to settle here, but the success was only moderate. In 1658 the Ottoman troops attacked and destroyed the village once more. Only from 1665 colonists coming from Sighişoara were able to revive the place. Despite all the problems, the fortified church wrote its own history, as regular worship services are still regularly held today, as it has always been starting with the 16th Century.

Paninis have come a long way

The panini sandwich has evolved from the simple Italian 'toast' sandwich, filled with meat, usually prosciutto, and cheese.

Like its predecessors, you'll find today's paninis bear the distinctive toast lines of the Italian sandwich press. Similarly, they are concocted with the rich cheeses and meats.

But fillings and flavorings have changed. Local custom and favorites sometimes govern what goes into the panini. In central Italy, for example, the panini boasts succulent roasted pork.

Whether you have a panini press, a sandwich grill or just want to make one in a skillet, here's a recipe for the Hot Sicilian that offers the tastes of Italy, enhanced by spices.

Hot Sicilian paninis

- Ingredients
- 1 loaf Italian bread cut in eight half-inch slices (OK to trim crusts)
 - 1 half-pound of deli shaved ham

- 1 package each hard salami and sandwich pepperoni
- 8 slices provolone cheese
- 1 medium tomato, sliced thin
- 1 medium red onion, sliced thin
- Dashes of parmesan cheese, salt, pepper, red wine vinegar, olive oil
- Optional: slices of pickled or fresh banana peppers.

Lay the eight slices of bread on a dish towel. On each bread slice, add one slice of provolone cheese. On four of the sandwich halves, add two pieces each of salami, a generous amount of shaved ham, and two pieces of sandwich pepperoni.

On the other four sandwich halves, add two slices of tomato, two slices of onion and a few pepper rings.

Shake parmesan cheese, oil, vinegar, salt, and pepper sparingly to all eight sandwich halves. Combine the halves into four sandwiches.

Preheat your press following the manufacturer's instructions, or in a large skillet lightly coated with butter or canola oil, place the sandwiches two at a time. Apply pressure with the sandwich maker or a spatula.

Open the sandwich maker every two minutes, or turn skillet sandwiches every two minutes until they are golden brown.

It's Back to School time. No matter how old you are, it's important to keep learning!

Today's lesson: The ABCs of Annuities

What is an Annuity? An Annuity is an agreement between you and an insurance company like the ATS, in which you make a lump-sum payment or a series of payments, earn interest, and in return, receive regular disbursements beginning immediately or at some point in the future. It is intended to be a retirement asset.

Are there different types of Annuities? Yes. Annuities come in three main types: Fixed, Variable, and Indexed. Variable and Indexed annuities could have a higher rate of return, but have increased risk because they are usually tied to the stock market. Fixed Annuities pay a guaranteed amount and come in two different types: Immediate and Deferred. The Immediate type annuity, as its name implies, pays out immediately. The Deferred type annuity pays you later. The ATS only sells this Fixed guaranteed type of Annuity.

Is the interest that the Annuity earns tax deferred? What does that mean? Yes, the interest that you earn on your annuity is tax deferred. This means you will not have to pay income taxes on the earnings each year while the account is growing. Instead, you will pay income tax in the year that you withdraw the interest, probably after you have retired.

Do I need a large amount to start an ATS Annuity? No. Unlike some insurance companies who require big deposits to start an annuity, the ATS requires only $300 to open an annuity. This amount is $150 for those under age 16. $25 is the minimum amount for future deposits.

Are there fees on an ATS Annuity? The ATS does not charge any administrative fees for your account. There could be a small surrender charge fee in the first five years of the account being opened if you withdraw funds. Other companies can charge lots of fees such as statement fees, annual fees, or withdrawal fees. If you withdraw funds prior to reaching age 59 1/2, you could incur an IRS penalty.

Am I required to withdraw the funds from my ATS annuity? No. You are not required to withdraw the funds from a Tax Deferred Annuity (unlike a Traditional IRA account). You could leave the entire account to your beneficiaries. You could make periodic withdrawals from your account. You could receive an interest check each month. Or you could annuitize your account and receive either a set dollar amount, a set number of payments, or a check for the rest of your lifetime. An Annuity is the only product that can guarantee a stream of income that you cannot outlive.

Does my ATS Annuity account go through probate after I die? Not if your beneficiary is a person, church or charity. If you name your spouse, children, relative, friend, or even a charity as your beneficiary, the funds will go directly to them. If you name your Estate as your beneficiary, then yes, the funds will go through the probate process. Please use caution when listing your Estate as your beneficiary on any type of account as the funds could be tied up for a long time until the Estate is settled.
