BRANCH 30, YOUNGSTOWN

By Tom Fizet

Saxon News from the West Coast
(Tacoma, Washington)

Winter must be over, the Saxon Club is getting busy. I'll try to fill you in on what is happening. It is great to hear that Garry Como is home and doing well and taking it easy. Tom Hahn is home and doing well, there again taking it easy, Happy Birthday Gloria. Tom still finds help to keep the Restoration Committee active, looking into replacing the ceiling tile and the sub surface and drywall. Some time ago this was damaged by an air conditioner that froze and water dripped; you know what that does. They will remove the smoke ejectors, a good time to do this, they can make other changes then. As with all Restoration or upkeep they will be campaigning for additional funds through the Memorial and Celebration Committee. Look at the Bar ceiling and consider a donation to this project, also some other treatment on the beams in the dining area.

The Committee has a great dinner and entertaining night planned for the Goulash Dinner, the 40th Annual, Saturday March 19, 2016. For reservations call the Office 330-792-7973 by March 13, 2016. Read their ad in the Volksblatt, the Man of the Year Rick Lieb (the 300 Club chairman Rick has served the club in other positions, the Woman of the Year Bonnie Baker, Branch 22, (President of Branch 22 for some time, now retired ), Bonnie has held other positions in Branch 22 also.

Branch 22 has a Flea Market set for April 9th, open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. If you are moving, spring cleaning, downsizing, changing your wardrobe, or just getting rid of some of your stuff, donate it to Branch 22 for the sale. Bring stuff to the club after April 1st please, and they will thank you. Look for their ad also. The profits go to the Youngstown Club Scholarships for students for college expense.

Bingo every Sunday in the Ballroom, doors open at 5:00 p.m. Play starts at 6:45 p.m. Bring some friends and enjoy meeting other and old friends, the Queen of Hearts is on every Sunday. See their ad in the Volksblatt. Look through the Volksblatt and see the other ads from other clubs and singing societies, If you are in their vicinity they would be glad to welcome you.

It's up to you, pay your dues soon for Branch 22 or 30. If your dues are not paid your card will not unlock the door after April 1st. The same as most clubs or orders, the Club does need operating Funds. Consider what the card does for you, the Building can't be there without support. Think about this and attend the meeting on March 22, 2016, see some friends and have a beer.

This is what is going on at the Club: Bar Bingo Tuesday evening in the Bar, Wednesday in the Bar the Saxon Drawing, Thursday in the Bar Queen of Hearts. Read the Saxon News Branch 22 and 30, read the Volksblatt and the Fraternal Calendar, Check the Club on their Web-site, stopover and see what is going on.

Happy Birthday VP Barry Garhammer on March 1, 2016.

I'll have the rest of the story on March 16, 2016

So goes the news.

Update Your Personal Records And Family Protection

Address changes? Have you notified the ATS Home Office of your new address? Have your adult children changed their addresses?

Beneficiary changes? Was there a marriage, divorce, death, etc., in your family which would require you to make a change of beneficiary on your Life Insurance or Annuity Contracts? Take care of it right away! Senior citizens tend to neglect this, so remind them!

Did the stork visit you recently? Did a new son or daughter arrive recently? Congratulations! Don't forget to make him/her an ATS member by purchasing a Life Insurance or Annuity plan so the he/she can benefit from our fraternal programs.

Do you need more life insurance? Do you have enough life insurance protection for yourself and your family? Chances are you should have better coverage! Call you Local ATS Deputy.

How about an ATS Annuity or IRA Plan?

Are you saving for your retirement needs? ATS Annuity Plans offer you a safe way to increase and protect your savings while providing tax sheltered growth. Call you Local ATS Deputy and strengthen your financial future.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Thomas J. Manning
ATS Nat'l President

The Winter season is still here but it is beginning to look like we can at least hope for an early Spring. Weather conditions this year have been unusual. We have had a number of snowstorms but they have each been followed by a thaw. The occasional very cold temperatures did not last very long and additionally we have enjoyed a number of days filled with bright warm sunshine that melted our large piles of snow. It is good to be able to see our green grass once again. We look forward to welcoming the return of Spring when everything comes back to life and the flowers and trees start to bud and golfers start dusting off their clubs.

We are sadly reporting the sudden passing of Donald G. Miller, a lifelong member of the Alliance of Transylvanian Saxons. He was the loving father of Stephanie Miller and Jenny King; dear grandfather of Katherine Hanek; adoring father-in-law of Robert Hanek, and cherished brother of ATS 2nd Vice-President and Home Office Manager, Joan Miller-Malue(Charles). Our prayers and sympathy go to his family and friends.

With Easter fast approaching, here are some tips for you chocolate lovers:

1. If you get melted chocolate all over your hands, you are eating it too slowly.
2. Chocolate covered raisins, cherries, orange slices, and strawberries all count as fruit, so eat as much as you want.
3. Diet Tip! Eat a piece of chocolate before each meal. It will take the edge off your appetite and you will eat less.
4. A nice box of chocolates can provide your daily intake of calories all at once.

Warning: This is not recommended by Weight Watchers or the American Medical Association.

Quote of the Day: Cultivate Friendship. "Go off to the house of thy friend, for weeds choke the unused path."

Our closest friends share our burdens and double our joys; their lives are deeply intertwined with our own. It takes time and kindness to cultivate and care for these relationships. What a joy it is to take that time! It is a reward in itself.

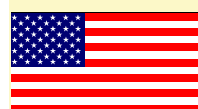

Take care until next time and may God bless the members of the ATS.

EINTRACHT SAXONIA SACHSENCOR by Edith Hebrank

In my last report, December 2015, I announced the Choir's next practice to be January 12, 2016 in preparation for the Memorial Service of Branch 1 and Branch 4 on January 18, 2016. Well, practice as well as Memorial Service, had to be canceled. Just then the Cleveland area received too much snow; actually a rather rare occasion this winter. No-one is complaining. We thus performed several meaningful songs for the Memorial Service on February 15, 2016. At that time, names of last year's departed members were read; a carnation was placed for each one of them.

Also at that meeting, the discussion revolved around Heimmattag in Youngstown. It will be much easier, of course, to drive to Youngstown than to travel to Aylmer, Canada. Everyone, please, plan to attend.

We, the members of the Choir, don't have to schedule a "get-together" (Spinnstube) so as not to be lonely and bored during the dreary winter months: Branch 1 held its annual sausage sale on February 13, 2016. And, in Saxon fashion, who ever was able to, came to lend his/her time and skills. Not exactly Gemuetlichkeit, but certainly spending time in each other's company.

I also had informed our readers, especially to the benefit of former members, that regular practices will begin March 8, 2016, 1:30 pm. We will have to work hard and not miss any practices. The Choir's annual concert is scheduled for April 30, 2016. Let's hope for good weather and no illness with any members in the meantime.

Just last week, however, we heard Joe Rhode had taken a fall resulting in a fractured hip. Joe, the bass section needs you badly and we need to see your always smiling face. A speedy recovery!

We are all happy to welcome Christa Herbert back after her husband's death in October. She did need some time to rest and recuperate after the ordeal of Dieter's illness.

To all our readers of the Volksblatt a Happy, Sunny Easter Celebration with your families and friends.

FROHE OSTERN!

Healthy
Living Tip

Everyone gets hit with a craving for sweets every now and again. In fact, some people find that their sweet tooth gets going every day. If you are trying to lose weight, this can end up being your downfall. But to combat this, you don’t have to give up all sweets. Simply opt for fruit instead of candy or cake every time you have a sweets craving. If you foster this habit, soon it will be easy to manage this type of craving.

How to have a terrific visit with an older loved one

Many people, unsure of what to say to an older loved one, make brief visits to those in assisted living, rehab facilities, or nursing homes.

Depending on the situation, a brief visit might be essential. But sometimes a little longer, more intimate visit can relieve loneliness.

Some of the tips for uplifting visits given by Paula Spencer Scott at Caring.com:

- Set your feelings aside as a gift to your loved one. Focus on enriching part of your relative’s or friend’s day at a difficult time of life. Focus on the person inside. That’s who you want to connect with. He or she is still there, even if the outer package has changed considerably. It can help to look into the person’s eyes. They are the “window to the soul.”
- Time your visit with care. Many frail elders have the most energy and alertness in the morning or right after a midday meal. Call ahead to ask if you’re unsure about a good visiting time.
- Greet your loved one warmly.
- Make eye contact, give a warm hug or gently hold a hand (remember that arthritis can make hand-shaking painful), then sit down to talk at eye level.
- Tweak your communication style. Raise your voice slightly if needed. About half of those over 75 have hearing trouble. Turn off the radio or other background noise.
- Keep your faces at about the same level. Many people rely on lip reading to help follow a conversation.
- Pay attention to your nonverbal communication. Turn off your phone and be present.
- Bring props. You can take off some of the “performance” pressure you might feel in making conversation by bringing along a helping hand. Examples: Some favorite or seasonal music (and something to play it on if needed). Pictures of your loved one with the family can be very enjoyable. Avoid tons of photos of people your loved one has never met -- unless these are requested.

OUR FAVORITE RECIPES from the SAXON COOKBOOK

PAPRIKA SPECK - PAPRIKA BAWFLIESCH

Yes, you traditional (or “Hipster”) Saxons can make your own Speck to bring along to share at the Heimattag hotel after party! - all you need is a smokehouse!

- 1/2 back fat
- Salt
- 1/4 oz. paprika
- 1/4 oz. cayenne pepper
- Sauerkraut juice

The back fat from a young porker fresh from a packing house or farm is cured to make Speck. Square up the back fat. Cure in a cool place, yet not too cold. Rub salt into skin side thoroughly - give it all the salt possible. Lay, skin side down, on a clean salt covered board. No exact amount of salt can be given for salting the fat side. It depends on size and thickness of the back fat. Salt it liberally. Fat should be salte enough to cure, yet not be too salty in flavor. The skin side needs as much as can be given. Fat side will absorb all the salt needed.

On the third day, turn over and resalt the skin side. Resalt fat side if salt fell off when turning. Repeat on sixth and ninth day. On the tenth day, resalt skin side only. Salt on fat side should now be absorbed. Brush off excess salt. Mix paprika and cayenne pepper with sauerkraut juice or water to consistency of thick cream. Brush on speck. Let dry. On the eleventh day, hang in smokehouse. Build a good fire with hickory or apple wood to make heat enough to warm speck thoroughly. It will drip. Close door to smoke. Give 2 more good smokings, but not necessarily as much heat as the first time. Let hang in the smokehouse for at least 4 weeks. The speck is ready to eat.

In Transylvania, they wait until after the first thunder in spring.

CHILDREN INCREASE YOUR NEED FOR LIFE INSURANCE COVERAGE

Life insurance is designed to protect your family and other people who may depend on you for financial support. If you die, the people that are dependent on your financial support will lose that income, so life insurance can help cover some or all of that loss depending on the policy you choose. It's wise to consider the consequences of an untimely demise. If something happens to you, where will the money come from to provide the upbringing you would like your child to have? How would they pay for college? You want to provide a safe and secure future for the ones who are left behind.

As your family grows, you should reevaluate your life insurance needs to be sure your coverage is adequate. Please consider the following:

Two wage earners in family: In most homes that have two wage earners, each partner is dependent on the other financially. Life insurance can provide income to your surviving spouse and allow your family to maintain its standard of living.

One wage earner: If there is only one wage earner in your home, the premature death of the wage earner could cause financial hardship to the surviving family. Life insurance is needed to ensure that your family has financial stability. Each spouse should carry enough life insurance to cover the expenses that would result from his or her death.

Single parent: Single parent families are totally dependent on the income of the wage earner. A premature death could be disastrous to the children. Life Insurance is a cost-effective way to ensure that your children will be financially protected if something should happen to you.

LIFE INSURANCE IS IMPORTANT TO GUARANTEE A SECURE FINANCIAL FUTURE FOR YOUR FAMILY.
