John Michael Schemmel Past ATS Trustee

† 1920 – 2011

We sorrowfully report the death of Past ATS Trustee, John M. Schemmel, who died on August 9, 2011 at the age of 91. Funeral services were held at A.H. Peters Funeral Home in Warren, Michigan on Saturday, August 13, 2011.

John was born in Detroit, Michigan on February 17, 1920. His father, Andrew, was born in Leschkirsch and his mother, Regina, was from Werd, Siebenbürgen. John was the beloved husband of the late Marjorie Avichouser. They were married in May 1963. He had two stepchildren, Joanne Britton and Richard Avichouser. He was the brother of Marie, Frieda, George Sr. (Patricia), Pauline and the late Andrew and Regina. John was blessed with loving nieces and nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

John attended St. Thomas German Lutheran School and graduated from Eastern High School in the city of Detroit. He worked for Western Union and Sears Roebuck before entering the U.S. Army in August 1942. He was with the infantry on Attu in the Aleutian Islands, France and Germany.

John worked for Chrysler Corporation, Detroit Police Department, and then attended Michigan Technical School for Electrical Study. He worked for the General Motors Engineering Staff for four years and General Motors Research Laboratories for 29 years retiring in 1982.

John was a member of the Transylvanian Saxon Juniors Association and the Alliance of Transylvanian Saxons since 1937. He served in every office of the Siebenbürger Sachsen Verein Branch 37. John served as an ATS National Trustee for 18 years from 1967 – 1985. John was awarded the Saxon Honor Pin in 1982. While serving on the National ATS Board he was a member of the National Committee and Youth Activities Committee.

Besides his dedicated service to the Alliance of Transylvanian Saxons, he served as President of the German American Cultural Center for several years, was a member of the Masons, Composite Lodge No. 499 and the Detroit Consistory Scottish Rite, Moslem Temple Shrine; a member and past officer of the General Motors Square Club. He served as Secretary of Fraternal Order of Police, Associate Lodge No. 102 Grosse Pointe. John was a member of the Bruce Post Veterans of Foreign Wars, Berkley Post American Legion, Fraternal Order of Eagles of East Detroit, United Automobile Workers Local 150, General Motors Technical Center. He was Secretary of the Roseville Democratic Committee and was recognized with a Lifetime Service Award in the 10th Congressional District.

John was respected within the Transylvanian Saxon Community and was proud of his Saxon heritage. As an ATS Officer he worked hard to strengthen our fraternal society.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to his family. May they find comfort in knowing that their loss is shared by many of his Saxon Sisters and Brothers.

TEEN WEEKEND SEPTEMBER 9-11 SALEM, OHIO

BRANCH 5, LORAIN By Michael Johnson

Summer is passing quickly and soon we will be seeing the leaves change color. As of this writing the deadline to make your reservation for the Branch 5 and 11 family picnic will have passed. However you should still stop by and say hello between 1:00 and dusk, Sunday, August 21 at the Pine tree picnic area on French Creek road. Check your last issue of the Volksblatt for the announcement and come be a part of the fun.

We had a lengthy meeting August 6th after not having one in July. If you are a member, we need you to take an active part in coming out the first Saturday of every month at 8:00 P.M. at the American Slovak Club to help keep our branch alive and active. Remember we meet first at 6:00 P.M. at the Chris Restaurant for dinner. Call President George H. Schneider at (440) 346-3199 for details and that you'll be attending the next meeting.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I just received word that John Schemmel from Detroit, Branch 37 passed away on August 9th. He had been an ATS member since 1937 and served as an officer of his Branch for over 50 years. He was also an ATS National Officer for 18 years, serving from 1967-1985. All that knew him will certainly miss him. We offer our sympathy to his family and friends. May he rest in peace. His obituary is printed in this issue of the Volksblatt.

With the summer quickly coming to an end, families are returning from vacations and getting their children ready to go back to school. The only ones that are really excited about going to school are the Kindergarten kids and the teens that are entering their last year of high school. None of them realize it, but these are the best times of their lives. The problem is they will not realize it until they get older.

Recently, two ATS national events were held. The first event was the Annual Golf Tournament hosted by Branches 18 and 19. The report has not yet been filed, but I am sure that Glen Spack and his crew did a good job providing the golfers with lots of Saxon Gemütlichkeit. More information is forthcoming.

On Saturday, August 6th, the ATS Family Day was held at Waldameer Park in Erie, PA. It was a very sunny and warm day and made the Water Park most enjoyable along with all of the amusement rides and picnicking. We had a nice crowd that attended and it was highlighted with a drawing for door prizes near the end of the day. We thank 2nd Vice President, Joan Miller-Malue and her committee for planning a fun filled day. We hope that everyone enjoyed it.

Did you realize that Adam and Eve had a perfect marriage? This is why! Adam didn't have to hear about all of the men she could have married, and she didn't have to hear about the way his mother cooked.

Quote of the day: "All sins are attempts to fill voids." We all have bad habits smoking, drinking, and gambling. Or, more mundanely, watching too much television, gossiping about others, eating too many sweets. Why do we do these things? Because we are bored, stressed out, unhappy, sad, frustrated, and lonely. We do them to feel better, but, too often, they only make us feel worse. We will never be able to stop these bad habits until we understand the reasons behind them and address those reasons directly.

Take care until next time and may God bless the members of the ATS.

tember1st thru November 1st. Watch your mail for the details and entry form. Call Brother Ned Jones at (440) 282-2796 if you plan to bowl or have not received an entry form. Games and shoe rental will be reimbursed upon presentation of a receipt for games played during the tournament. To make it more fun we may be able to meet for a party and bowl together for those children living in our local area.

Sister Monica Gilles, Branch 11 will be riding her bicycle 75 miles for the MS Society. Branch 5 voted to sponsor her with a $150.00 donation to help in the fight against multiple sclerosis. May God bless you for a safe ride!

We want to again thank Juliana Johnson for being an International Princess, representing the Transylvanian Saxons, at this year's Lorain International Festival. If you attended either the princess pageant or the parade you saw the Transylvanian Saxon flag. This was purchased by Branch 5 and will be donated to the Lorain International committee to be included each year hereafter with the other international flags during the events of the Lorain International Festival.

Presently there are no reports of sickness or deaths in our branch. It is good that everyone is staying healthy. Be sure to contact Brother Ned Jones to report any illnesses requiring a doctors care to see if you are eligible for sick benefits.

I missed the birthdays in July but still like to send good wishes for Brothers Scott Kranstuber and Kyle Cassidy. Juvenile members Rachel Gibson, Kaily Hochevar, and Lauryn Davis also celebrated birthdays this past month. Those having birthdays in the month of August are Brothers Ron Stephanchick, Robert Brenner, and Al Lachman. Also wishing happy birthdays to juvenile members Wendy Weber, Jacob Collins, David Goss, Victoria Goss, Jordyn Gibbs, Jullian Kirschner, and Taylor Cassidy.

Hope everyone continues to enjoy their summer. Remember to read your Volksblatt and expand your friendships by attending and supporting the other Saxon branches' activities.

BRANCH 33, CLEVELAND EAST By Jeff Krestel

The merge committee would like to remind everyone to please vote on the proposal to merge Branch 33 and Branch 34, and please send in your ballots. We would also like to clarify something that might have been misunderstood from the last article in the July 22 Volksblatt. Branch 33 and Branch 34 are both financially stable independently. The purpose of the merge is to increase the number of attending members. We believe that it would also improve how our lodge is perceived by people who might be looking for a lodge to associate with, but don't want to have to attend the meetings without each other. The ATS Home Office would also like it to be pointed out that this is only a local merge, and it will not affect your policies with the ATS. We apologize for any inconvenience that we may have caused, and we hope that this clears up any misunderstanding.

We send our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of our dear Brother Mike Foisel. He was such an important piece of our lives, and truly a wonderful man. He was a cornerstone member of branch 33, and he is one man out of a select group of people about whom you can honestly say, "The world is a better place because of him."

We would also like to send hearty get-well wishes to Brother Mike Adam, who is in the hospital due to pneumonia. Also well wishes to Brother Fred Krestel who will be undergoing a dental procedure to remove his wisdom teeth.

Our Financial Secretary, Brother Mike Bretz would like to take an opportunity to thank our members that pay their local dues in a prompt manner. Many of you pay for the entire year (or even two years) all at one time. This is very much appreciated, and it is actually preferred because it makes his job much easier. You can also pay your dues on a monthly basis at our regular business meetings. Our next meeting will be at 7:30 pm on Wednesday September 14th, at St. John's Lutheran Church on Ford Road in Highland Heights. There will be a party tray at 7:00, before the meeting.

The Transylvanian Saxons Bowling Association is close to beginning another season, and as luck would have it, Cleveland East was selected to host the session scheduled for December 4th, at Freeway Lanes (formerly Palisades Palace) in Wickliffe. As many of you might have already realized, this was also the scheduled date of our Christmas Dinner at Pine Ridge. In an effort to enable all of the members that participate in the bowling association to also attend our Christmas Dinner, we have rescheduled the Christmas Dinner for Sunday December 11th at Dino's on Rt. 306, just South of I-90. All members should have received a schedule of events along with your ballot. The date and time of the Christmas Dinner is correct as it appears on that

We are looking forward to seeing many of you at the Summer Picnic at the Penitentiary Glen in Kirtland, and at our Fall Dinner Dance, which will be on Sunday, September 11th at the Patrician in Eastlake.

Time for a withholding checkup

The W-4 you have on file determines how much money is withheld from your paycheck for income taxes. The amount is determined by how many dependents you claim.

The most obvious reason to make a new W-4 is because you have fewer or more dependents, but there are other reasons.

* If you paid a big tax bill this year, you probably had income from other sources, but income tax is supposed to be on a pay-as-you-go basis. You could face underpayment penalties if don't report the extra income regularly.

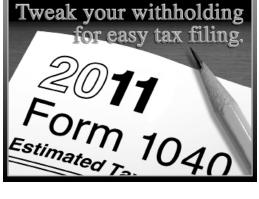

One way to avoid the penalty is to increase your withholding so an additional amount is deducted from each paycheck. You can also avoid penalties by paying estimated taxes every quarter, but it's easier to increase your withholding, according to experts at TurboTax.

* If you had a big tax refund, you have to ask yourself whether it would be better to decrease your withholding and invest in an interest-paying account. You can arrange an automatic deposit made from your paycheck to a savings or investment account. Or you could have it deducted from your bank account.

When you have high-interest credit card bills, paying on them would be a better use of the money. The average federal income tax refund for 2010 was almost $3,000.

* If you converted an individual retirement account to a Roth IRA in 2010, increasing withholding will reduce the amount you have to pay when you file your 2011 tax return, according to H&R Block.

TurboTax and H&R Block tax software allows customers to determine how to adjust their withholding based on information from their 2010 tax return. Or your accountant can help you determine the right amount.

The IRS offers a withholding calculator at irs.gov. You'll need a pay stub and your 2010 tax return to use it.

To increase withholding, increase your number of dependents or specify an additional amount to be withheld, such as $50 or $100.

August celebrates some of America's finest Rodeo events are exciting family affairs

Families dominate attendance at rodeo events, and the sponsors and participants like that. Visitors from many states, nationalities and countries can get close to the action, while they watch fast horses, wild bulls and their riders perform, but remain safe.

Rodeo is unique among modern sports and has become one of the most popular. It reflects the skills of the working cowboy who used his talents on ranches for decades, but now features all ages of participants, even kids.

Rodeo is especially popular in the western United States and throughout the province of Alberta, but states nationwide hold rodeo events, many at state fairs. Both Texas and Wyoming have named rodeo their official state sport.

Although rodeo is made up of several events, each with its own style of competition, rules, and rewards, seven are recognized as standard in most professional events: bareback riding, steer wrestling, team roping, saddle brone riding, tie-down roping, barrel racing and bull riding.

Each timed and judged event is designed to test the skills and speed of the contestants who vie for prize money awards, hand-tooled saddles, horse trailers and pickup trucks. The most valued and highly recognized trophy is a rodeo belt buckle.

Why are the rides only eight seconds? The eight-second ride was designed for the safety and well-being of the animals. After that time, the bucking ability of the horse or bull decreases due to fatigue. The rule means they stay healthy and untamed, with high spirit.

Senior Scene

Hospital bed in the living room? Now what?

To keep injured or sick people in the mix of things, their hospital beds are usually placed in the living room. Though a bed dominates the room, there are opportunities for making it part of an "attractive look."

First, avoid a crowding. Move unneeded furniture to another room.

Caregivers can perk up their decorating skills and creativity with color schemes. Consider bright red sheet sets on the bed and matching throw pillows on chairs to complete the theme. Or choose a bright green color.

Flowering plants, like chrysanthemums, on a table are sure to brighten the room and fit into your color scheme.

The patient and caregiver will have an upbeat feeling after the decorating.

Keep them in the game

Sometimes, it seems an aged or disabled person can't, or won't, do much of anything, but he or she might rise to an occasion in a surprising way.

One inexperienced daughter-in-law was asked to sit for an afternoon with Ethel, a 94-year-old great grandmother. The patient was awake but not talking and didn't want television. The temp caregiver didn't know what to do.

Then she remembered Rummikub, a family game in years past, and suggested they play. Ethel was surprised but agreed and was helped to the table.

The daughter-in-law held back at first to give her opponent a break, but it became apparent that the break wasn't needed. Ethel went on to win. She relished every small victory and talked about the game to others.

An aged or injured person might enjoy cards or domino-type games.

Cooking for one or two

Cooking can be enjoyable as you grow older. Some suggestions:

- Spend a day cooking old favorites, like chili, stew, or meatloaf, all of which can be divided and frozen for other days.
- Dinner doesn't have to be a big meal. Soup and sandwiches are fine.
- Experiment with making smaller quantities of desserts and foods.

SALEM SAXON RETIREES By Sue Fritzman

The Salem Saxon Retirees met August 3rd for their Bratwurst fellowship luncheon and potluck. John Fowler grilled the delicious Bratwurst enjoyed by 38 members and welcomed guest Amy Weber, daughter of Dorothy Weber.

President Lois Whitacre called the meeting to order with Bill Hiltbrand presenting a lovely vocal invocation, followed by the group reciting the Pledge of Allegiance.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Katy Lederle gave her Treasury report and also suggested that those who are unable to work on committees could perhaps bring snacks.

Marilyn McNutt reminded members that the 50 year Honorary Banquet will be held October 1st. Bill Hiltbrand read a long list of members on the sick list asked for prayers. Nancy Stumperth acknowledged those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries.

Tony Rothbrust announced that the September 7th meeting will be a catered event with the officers serving on the committee. Reservations are required and are to be made with Katy Lederle at 330-533-5154.

George Spack entertained the group with humorous readings.

The meeting closed with The Lord's Prayer with a game of Bingo to conclude the afternoon fellowship.

Birthdays for the month of September are: Mitzie Cushing – 1; Louise Theiss – 9; Jo Ann Reichenbaugh – 9; Sue Fritzman – 12; Bill Martin -15; Lois Ulrich - 25.

September Anniversary Couples: Ralph and Marie Cook, 18th; Joe and Dee Bush, 18th; Shirley and Tony Kataro, 20th. Congrats to all!

Do you feel like you have been living in Florida these past few weeks? It has been so hot and humid with temperatures in the 90's in mid July. Now that we are into August, the nights are cooler and we haven't had too much rain for the fairs as of yet.

Our Fronius-Fritzman family reunion has been held the first Sunday of August for several years. It also has dwindled down to about 27 in attendance and will be celebrating the 50 year anniversary in a few years. We have had several losses also this year from our reunion group. Sadly, the most recent sudden loss was Richard Schwartz, 73, the son of the late Peg and Lox Schwartz of Alliance. Dick was a special guy loved by all and spent a lot of time with us growing up. So glad to see that his granddaughter, Devon Schwartz of Connecticut, was one of the recipients of the ATS Scholarships. Al Linder's presence was also missed as our Bingo caller as was friend Liz Fronius, who also recently passed away. It was also nice to see that Al Linder's grand-daughter Kathryn Linder of Virginia, Frank Diehl's grand-children Meghan and Nathan Diehl and also Marian Spack were also recipients of scholarships. Congratulations to all, you make us proud!

Congratulations to George Spack Jr. as he has been nominated as one of this year's recipients of Salem's Athletic Hall of Fame. George graduated in 1969 from Salem High School and was a great basketball star here and in college. He has been a teacher/coach for many years and a favorite teacher for many I am sure. Congratulations George!

Twila Kloos is thankful for all of the prayers for her granddaughter Kierstin, who is recovering from a car accident from which she was seriously injured and in a coma. God has certainly blessed her for she has made a miraculous recovery and is now planning on going back to school. Thank God for this blessing for this lovely family.

Sometimes it is interesting to buy an out-of-town newspaper. My granddaughter Angie came across an article on pigeons in the Sunday issue of the Pittsburgh Post Gazette. Knowing my interest in birds, she passed it on to me. Of course, I did some research on racing and homing pigeons. Doves and pigeons go back as far as recorded history as they inhabit the entire world except for the polar regions. There is not much difference between them as people use the names interchangeably, though the term dove usually applies to the smaller species. Their size ranges from 6 to 15 inches long. The turtle dove we see in our yards are about 12 inches long and all have rounded tails except the mourning dove. The rock dove is the common pigeon found in the cities and is slightly larger and has black tail bands and a purple color on its head and under body. Their soft coo-coo sound is also an identifiable sound.

What do the Queen of England and Mike Tyson have in common? Who would have thought - pigeons! The queen keeps a loft at her castle and Mr. Tyson keeps his racing pigeons in both New York and Las Vegas. Racing pigeons have a longer history in Pittsburgh than the show pigeons, and by 1870 racing clubs were formed. German immigrants had a great influence over this sports' popularity, for some were imported from Germany, Belgium and France. One racing winner flew distances of 1,000 miles and more.

Both of these species have a dignified charm and an intriguing subtle personality. They make a good companion, as they are exceptionally neat as they make very little mess and are extremely gentle, devoted creatures. They are also the least expensive and hardy.

Pigeons, especially the white dove, are universal symbols of peace, love and tranquility throughout history. This image has been used on wedding announcements emblems and slogans, Valentine's Day cards, etc. A common celebration after wedding ceremonies is the releasing of two white doves as a symbol of love and peaceful happiness for the new couple instead of the tossing of birdseed or rice. They are also a symbol of peace and eternal life as they are released after a funeral service in cemeteries. Some dove owners offer this service when requested and it is quite touching to see them soaring into the heavens.

I remember as a child, as many of you also probably can relate, that many of our parents had pigeons and chicken coops. In those days you were allowed to keep them in the city. We have many old pictures of my dad with his pigeons and our children in the backyard with the chickens running around. My dad was proud of his pigeons and I especially remember one special pigeon even named "Blue Boy" that he purchased at a Damascus auction. Pigeons have a homing instinct but must be trained and conditioned. Unfortunately, my dad did not have this knowledge when he sent one of his pigeons on a long distance flight. I remember this special day when dad decided to let him fly as we all witnessed the exciting send-off on his journey to the sky. We watched him fly away into the sky until he was nothing but a black dot and then he was out of sight. It was an exciting and also scary feeling for unknowing what would happen to poor "Blue Boy."

Dad watched the skies uneasily for days and weeks, waiting for his special pigeon's return with no sign as he held his outstretched and hopeful hand to the sky. To his delight one day we saw that familiar black dot in the sky approaching slowly to his palm. Slowly coming in for a landing on this welcomed hand was dad's "Blue Boy," exhausted and almost lifeless. Dad then realized this poor bird was not meant for long flights, as he nourished him with drops of water as the other concerned pigeons flocked around him. "Blue Boy" did survive and was never encouraged to fly again!

Today there are variances in the city of a required 150 feet for any animals and also large birds, for many enjoy the fresh eggs. Many of these people who choose to have pigeons as pets, will be upset to see this small tender meat (squab) offered at some fancy restaurants. So if you are a pigeon lover, keep this in mind when ordering!

For those interested I will continue more in my next article. Enjoy the rest of your summer for it will be Labor Day soon and back to school time! You know what that means - the unenviable fall and winter are fast approaching! ENJOY!!

BRANCH 11, LORAIN By Monica Gilles

I hope that you have made your reservations for the annual summer Branch 5 and 11 picnic to be held on Sunday, August 21 at French Creek Reservation from 1pm until the park closes. This is the same place as last year. The men will be providing the main entrée, beverages, and table settings. Once again, the women are asked to share their delicious side dishes or desserts. All local members of Branches 5 and 11 are free. Family members of local members will be charged $10.00 and any others will be $20.00. Please contact Brian Gilles at 440-315-5214 to make reservations.

The TSBA season will be starting soon with three teams from Lorain. Since the league changed to a 4-person team, we were able to form a third team. We also would like to welcome new bowlers, Jeanne Petty and Brian Gilles. I hope you enjoy bowling with the TSBA as much as the rest of us do.

May the following members have a wonderful birthday: Dawn Hyer, Jeanne Petty, and Myrna Jones.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, September 3 at 8pm. At this meeting, we will collect items to be donated to Genesis House (the women's shelter in Lorain). A list of items will be passed out at the picnic. If you are unable to attend the picnic, please let Monica Gilles know and she can mail you the list of items. See everyone at the picnic!

GO TRIBE!

As Saxons we are often loath to ask for donations for our organizations, but we live in a very realistic world. And so we do indeed ask...and guess what? Our members do respond. Again we ask for your kind donations, hoping to continue with our renovations as funds will allow. ...

As always, the committee thanks you.

Dan George Ferguson † (1930-2011)

Dan Ferguson, of Sterling Heights, died Wednesday, July 27 at the age of 80. He had been a resident of St. Anthony Nursing Home, in Warren, Michigan for 2 1/2 years. His funeral was held at Wujek-Calcaterra Funeral Home in Sterling Heights on Saturday, July 30. Officiating at the service was Father Jim Andres. Burial of his ashes will be in Great Lakes National Cemetery. His survivors are his wife, Virginia; his children David Ferguson (Debbie) of Sterling Heights, Michigan; Diana Ferguson, of Jacksonville, Florida; Robert (Ingrid) Ferguson of Sterling Heights, Michigan; and Richard (Cheryl) Ferguson, of Hartland, Michigan. Also surviving him are his grandchildren, Matthew, Benjamin, Michael, Shawn, Faye, and Tabitha. Dan had one great, grand-child, Phoenix. His sister, Jacqueline (Mrs. Bill Herfert), of Washington, Michigan survives him also.

Dan was born in Detroit on October 31, 1930 to parents Don and Gertrude (Huber) Ferguson. He was raised in Detroit and was introduced to his future wife, Virginia, by his mother, as the two women worked together. The couple was married August 13, 1955 at St. Rita Roman Catholic Church in Detroit. Dan supported his family by his trade as an electrician. His electricians' union, Local 58, helped him find work. In 1951 Dan signed up with the U.S. army. He served in the Korean conflict one year and three months and was honorably discharged in 1953.

Dan, a home body, enjoyed wood-working, hunting, fishing, and golf. His associations included Branch 37, The Lion's Club for 31 years, and membership at St. Matthias R.C. Church, Sterling Heights.

Although Dan was legally blind for thirty-one years, he never complained of his lot. His good disposition made him a pleasure to be with. His family and friends speak highly of him with love.

CLEVELAND SAXON SENIORS By Helen Korsgaard

What a beautiful summer we've been having! Enjoy these next few months of sunshine and warmth!

Our next meeting is Thursday, August 25th, and there will be a picnic lunch featuring KFC chicken with all the trimmings, including dessert. Just bring your table service, and come for a good time. Please call Erna at 440-871-7668 to let her know you are coming so that she can figure out how much food to order.

We've had a lot of sad news these last few months. Walter Korsgaard (my husband) passed away on July 5th. He will be buried in a Military Honor Ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery on November 2, 2011.

Millie Teutschlander is in Patrician Nursing Home. Her telephone number there is 440-230-1726. She would appreciate a call or visit.

My sister, Gertrude Titsch, is in Wellington Nursing Home for rehab, having broken her thighbone in a fall at home. She can be reached on her cell phone 440-503-3699.

On a happier note, Erna Kloos's granddaughter, Julie Podway, is being married this month. My grandson, Ben Hartstock, is also being married on August 27 in Greenville, Michigan.

So, life goes on, with births, marriages and deaths, as it has always been. Here is a poem that a friend sent to me recently:

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path that God laid for me I took his hand when I heard his call I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day To laugh, to love, to work or play Tasks left undone must stay that way I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy A friendship shared,, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things--- I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow--I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow

My life's been full---I savored much--Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch Perhaps my time has seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your hearts---and share with me God wanted me now---he set me free.

We remember our Sisters and Brothers who have departed this life in recent days. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the members of the bereaved families.

Fewer used cars mean fewer bargains

Prices for recent model used cars are up by between $1,500 and $3,000. Dealers say prices will continue to rise as inventories of lowerpriced and economy cars shrink.

On the plus side, the value of a new car trade-in is rising. High prices for used cars are pushing more shoppers toward new vehicles.

Tornados: Underinsured could receive federal aid

About 96 percent of people whose homes were destroyed by recent tornados have homeowners insurance, but 64 percent of the homes were undervalued for insurance purposes.

Home values have dropped nationwide. At the same time, rebuilding costs have gone up. That leaves homeowners with enough money to rebuild about 81 percent of their homes.

In states where President Obama declared a disaster, the uninsured or underinsured could receive federal aid, which is capped at about $30,000, but average payouts could be much less.

Only 43 percent of renters had renter's insurance.

Well, what do we have in the garden this week and what can we make it with it? Since tomatoes are plentiful this time of year, how about trying fresh Tomato Sauce or Paradeissoße? This is not the Italian version but probably the tomato sauce you may remember your grandmother or great grandmother making. The recipe calls for tomato juice if you don't make your favorite, store bought would be just fine.

Paradeissoße (Tomato Sauce)

1/4 cup oil or lard (Fett) 6 Tbsp. flour 32 oz. tomato juice Salt 1 tsp sugar Pepper

Heat cooking oil (or lard/Fett) in a saucepan and stir in the flour. Continuously stir over medium-low heat until lightly browned. Stir in the tomato juice slowly, one cup at a time. Salt and pepper to taste. If desired, add sugar to take away the sourness.

Serve with chicken, beef, pork, stuffed peppers or meat-

Homemade Tomato Juice Recipe

- 3 pounds very ripe garden tomatoes, cored, roughly chopped
- 1 1/4 cups chopped celery with leaves
- 1/3 cup chopped onion 2 Tbsp sugar (to taste)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- Pinch black pepper

1. Put all ingredients into a large stainless steel (not aluminum). Bring to a simmer and cook, uncovered, until mixture is completely soupy, about 25 minutes. 2. Force mixture through a sieve or food mill. Cool com-

DIE DEUTSCHE SEITE

Das Siebenbürgische Museum in Gundelsheim

Interview mit Dr. Irmgard Sedler

Das Siebenbürgische Museum hat sich in den letzten Jahren-trotz drastischen Stellenabbaus-in der deutschen Museumslandschaft und durch internationale Zusammenarbeit behauptet. Es beherbergt die bedeutendsten Sammlungen dieser Art außerhalb Siebenbürgens. Für das Selbstverständnis und Kulturerbe der Siebenbürger Sachsen ist das Museum von existenzieller Bedeutung. Eine Bilanz des Wirkens seit 1999 zieht Dr. Irmgard Sedler, ehrenamtliche Vorsitzende des Trägervereins des Siebenbürgischen Museums, im folgenden Interview, das Siegbert Bruss führte. Ob diese qualitätsvolle Arbeit auch nach 2012 fortgesetzt werden kann? Irmgard Sedler hofft, dass der Bundesbeauftragte der Bundesregierung für Kultur und Medien die Arbeit weiter fördern wird.

Zur Person: Die Germanistin und Volkskundlerin Irmgard Sedler wurde 1951 in Alzen gebo- ren, bis 1991 war sie Oberkonservator und Abteilungsleiterin am Brukenthalmuseum in Hermannstadt. Seit 1992 leitet sie die Museen der Stadt Kornwestheim, ebendort ist sie seit 2003 auch Direktorin der vom Berliner Stararchitekten Josef Paul Kleihues gebauten Kunstgalerie. Sie promovierte zum Thema historische Identitätsmechanismen im vielkulturellen Raum am Beispiel der Landlertracht. Für die Konzeption des Landlermuseums in Bad Goisern erhielt sie 1995 den Österreichischen Museumspreis. Sedler ist Kuratorin von Ausstellungen in Deutschland, Österreich, Frankreich, Russland, Rumänien. In zahlreichen Publikationen hat sie die siebenbürgische Kulturgeschichte-Kleidung, Habitat, Memoria, interethnische Kulturinterferenzen – erforscht.

1999 gab es Pläne der Bundesregierung, das Museum nach Ulm zu verlegen. Hat sich die Entscheidung für den Verbleib in Gundelsheim positiv auf dessen Entwicklung ausgewirkt?

Der Trägerverein des Siebenbürgischen Museums hat es sich mit der Entscheidung für den Verbleib der Einrichtung am angestammten Ort auf Schloss Horneck in Gundelsheim nicht leicht gemacht. Diese fiel erst nach reiflicher Überlegung über die Vor- und Nachteile. Mit ihren Argumenten überzeugten die Verantwortlichen schließlich auch die Förderer beim Beauftragten der Bundesregierung für Kultur und Medien. Es galt, das Auseinanderreißen der historisch gewachsenen Sammlungsbestände zu verhindern.

Darüber hinaus war es wichtig, die professionelle Selbstständigkeit der Institution mit ihrer laufenden inhaltlichen Arbeit zu erhalten. Hierzu muss man wissen, dass historische Exponate wie alte, gebrechliche Patienten gehegt und gepflegt werden müssen und gefährdet sind, wenn man sie aus dem ihnen förderlichen Raumklima herausreißt. Hinzu kam das Hauptargument gegen eine Verlagerung: Das Museum ist im Zusammenhang mit der Siebenbürgischen Bibliothek und dem Siebenbürgischen Archiv in Gundelsheim entstanden und gewachsen. Es ging also darum, das Museum auch örtlich im Verbund mit den anderen Kultureinrichtungen in Gundelsheim zu erhalten, da die wissenschaftliche Arbeit im Hause nicht nur der beiden anderen Einrichtungen zwingend bedarf, sondern sich mit deren Recherchen zu ergänzen vermag. Ein ganz wichtiges Argument betraf die Räumlichkeiten, die der Hausherr, der Hilfsverein "Johannes Honterus", dem Museum seit Jahrzehnten in dankenswerter Weise kostenlos überlässt und ihm auch Planungssicherheit gibt.

Die Entwicklungen des Museums in den letzten elf Jahren bestätigen - trotz drastisch reduziertem Fachpersonal-, dass die Entscheidung, das Museum in Gundelsheim zu bewahren, richtig war: Steigende Besucherzahlen, eine fruchtbare, sehr intensive Ausstellungs-Zusammenarbeit mit Museen in und außerhalb Deutschlands, die Beteiligung an großangelegten Forschungsprojekten und Publikationen in Deutschland, Österreich und Rumänien – das alles sichert dem Siebenbürgischen Museum zunehmend einen wichtigen Platz in der deutschen Museumslandschaft, rückt es ins allgemeine Bewusstsein eines interessierten Besucherpublikums. Das belegen neben den im Kronstädter Kunstmuseum, im Hermannstädter Brukenthalpalais, in Düsseldorf und Dortmund gezeigten Gemeinschaftsausstellungen auch die Publikationen, wie etwa der Ikonenkatalog "Zerbrechliche Heiligenwelten" (2004 in Kornwestheim), das Begleitbuch zu "Imperium an der Peripherie" (2007 im Brukenthalmuseum), die Monographie zu Arthur Coulin (2010 im Kunstmuseum Kronstadt).

Seit 1999 sind Sie Vorsitzende des Trägervereins des Siebenbürgischen Museums. Welche Bilanz ziehen Sie nach zwölf Jahren ehrenamtlichen Wirkens, was wurde Neues geleistet?

In meiner Arbeit für das Siebenbürgische Museum setzte ich sowohl auf die Kontinuität dessen, was sich bei meinen Vorgängerinnen und Vorgängern bewährt hat, als auch auf Innovatives. Dies geschieht immer in Abstimmung und Zusammenarbeit mit dem Kustos der Sammlungen, dem Kunsthistoriker Marius J. Tataru, und der Verwaltungsleiterin Andrea Renner.

Die grenzüberschreitende Ausstellungsarbeit, wie sie der vormalige Museumsleiter Dr. Volker Wollmann zum Beispiel mit seiner Ausstellungsreihe "Salz und Silber in Siebenbürgen" in Rumänien initiiert hat, haben wir konsequent weitergeführt und inhaltlich vertieft. Wir haben Ausstellungen auf Wanderschaft geschickt, Gemeinschaftsprojekte mit ausländischen Museen entwickelt und Exponate aus den jeweiligen Partnermuseen zu gemeinsam gestalteten Präsentationen zusammengeführt. Beispielhaft nenne ich die Ausstellungen 2007 in Hermannstadt, der Europäischen Kulturhauptstadt: "Siebenbürgische Wohnkultur" im ASTRA-Nationalmuseum im "Schatzkästlein" und "Kirchenraum im Wandel" im Landeskirchlichen Museum.

Der grenzüberschreitenden Zusammenarbeitzwischen dem Siebenbürgischen Museum und ASTRA-Nationalmuseum in Hermannstadt, in dessen Betreuung sich die wichtigsten historischen siebenbürgischsächsischen Sammlungsbestände im Bereich der tradierten Volkskunst befinden (hier die Sammlungen von Emil Sigerus und Julius Bielz), war dienlich, dass Letzteres über viele Jahre hinweg meine berufliche Wirkungsstätte gewesen ist. 1999 haben wir ein Abkommen über die partnerschaftliche Zusammenarbeit unterzeichnet und für beide Seiten gewinnbringende Kooperationen programmatisch als Aufgaben festgeschrieben. Auf dieser Grundlage bot das Siebenbürgische Museum beispielsweise im letzten Sommer einem internationalen Besucherpublikum eine vielbeachtete Ausstellung mit Gert Fabritius' Totentanz-Folgen im "Schatzkästlein" in Hermannstadt.

In welche Richtung ging und geht das Neue?

Mir war es von Anfang an sehr wichtig, dass das Siebenbürgische Museum – bei allem Blick auf die Museumslandschaft in der alten Heimat - zuallererst im württembergischen bzw. deutschen Kulturbetrieb fest verankert wird. Hierfür habe ich zwei Zielrichtungen bedacht. Zum einen galt es, die Dauerausstellung inhaltlich sinnstiftend auf aktuelle gesellschaftliche Befindlichkeiten auszurichten, um an siebenbürgischen Fallbeispielen "historische Antworten" zu liefern. Als Museumswissenschaftlerin habe ich drei Themenräume der Dauerausstellung neu konzipiert: das Schulwesen der Siebenbürger Sachsen, die protestantischen Nachbarschaften und, in diesem Jahr, die historische ländliche Wohnkultur. Vor allem das Nachbarschaftswesen erweist sich für die Besucher als ein sehr aussagestarkes und beispielhaftes Thema, weil es in der heutigen Zeit der Individualisierung und Vereinsamung ein historisches Modell des Gemeinschaftswesens, des Gruppenzusammenhaltes, der gegenseitigen Hilfeleistung, schließlich gerade auch Strategien gegen die Vereinsamung im Alter vorweisen kann. Das weckt Interesse an der Geschichte Siebenbürgens, und die Besucher verbringen, wie wir feststellen, sehr viel Zeit im Raum der Nachbarschaften.

Zum anderen kooperieren wir mit Museen in der Region und in ganz Deutschland. So hat unser Museum Ausstellungen in der Städtischen Galerie in Bad Wimpfen, in Düsseldorf und Kornwestheim gezeigt, hat sich an Ausstellungen mit Museen in Berlin, Dortmund u.a. beteiligt. Wichtig ist auch die gute Zusammenarbeit mit dem Donauschwäbischen Zentralmuseum in Ulm geworden, wo zurzeit Werke des siebenbürgischen Künstlers Gert Fabritius gezeigt werden.

Unsere Zeitung berichtet immer wieder über siebenbürgische Kreis- und Kulturgruppen, die Gundelsheim besuchen. Weshalb ist ein Besuch des Siebenbürgischen Museums lohnenswert?

Nach der Erneuerung der Dauerausstellung im Jahr 1997 wurde die neue Präsentation aus siebenbürgischen Kreisen teilweise auch heftig kritisiert. Gerade als Museumsfachmann weiß man, dass die Besucher zu Recht erwarten, dass etwas Neues auch besser sein sollte. Paradoxerweise aber sollte das Neue aber bitte weiterhin den alten Sehgewohnheiten und Präsentationsmodi entsprechen. So wurde die Kritik in Gundelsheim vor allem an den "aufgehängten Möbeln" festgemacht und kaum an den musealen Inhalten. Wir haben die Dauerausstellung inzwischen aktualisiert und planen noch weitere Änderungen. Das führt dazu, dass unser Museum heute von den Besuchern aus aller Welt sehr gut aufgenommen wird. Die vielen Einträge im Gästebuch und die stetig steigende Zahl auch der über den Verband der Siebenbürger Sachsen organisierten Besuchergruppen belegen das.

menführungen (Geschichte und Gemeinschaftsleben der Siebenbürger Sachsen, Wohnkultur, Kunst in Siebenbürgen, Siebenbürgen und seine Völker) bietet das Haus auch Schnupperführungen für Einsteiger in die siebenbürgische Thematik an, ergänzt durch Besichtigung des Schlossturmes und Führungen zur Schlossgeschichte. Hier arbeitet das Museum gut mit der Stadtverwaltung Gundelsheim und dem Touristikamt Bad Wimpfen/Gundelsheim zusammen. Zusätzlich können Stadtführungen gebucht werden, mit Wein- und Schokoladeproben im Café Schell oder mit Bewirtung im Weinkeller des Schlosses. Das Museum schult in diesem Sinne kontinuierlich die städtischen Fremdenführer. Märchenabende mit der begnadeten Erzählerin Sigrid Früh und musikalische Rahmenveranstaltungen ergänzen das Angebot. Auch unser Museumsladen mit Publikationen und siebenbürgischem Kunsthandwerk wird von Besuchern gerne in Anspruch genommen.

2004 musste das Siebenbürgische Museum seine Dépendance in der Alten Tabakfabrik aufgeben und konnte die Verwaltung und Teile der Sammlungen im Alten Rathaus in Gundelsheim unterbringen. Auf Schloss Horneck wurden, neben der Dauerausstellung, Räume für Sonderrausstellungen geschaffen. Wie groß sind diese Flächen, und haben sie sich bewährt?

Museen leben größtenteils von ihren Sonderausstellungen, beleuchten doch diese immer neue Facetten, in unserem Falle siebenbürgischer Kunst und Kultur, die im Kontext der Dauerausstellung nicht vertieft werden konnten. Da in Gundelsheim die Präsentationsfläche für die Dauerschau lediglich überschaubare 500 qm bietet, sind die beiden seit 2006 dankenswerterweise hinzugekommenen Sonderausstellungsräume mit ihren 110 qm für das Museum besonders wichtig. Im Sommer 2007 gab eine Werkschau des Kronstädter Malers Friedrich von Bömches den Auftakt für eine ganze Reihe kunst- und kulturhistorischer Ausstellungen. Hier finden vor allem zeitgenössische Künstler siebenbürgischer Herkunft oder mit siebenbürgisch ausgerichteten Werksinhalten ein angemessenes Forum: Katharina Zipser, Ernst Graeser, Heinz Schunn und Norbert Thomae gehören zu ihnen. Wichtig ist, dass sich das Museum im Laufe der Jahre auch für Künstler aus der Region geöffnet und beispielsweise 2009 Gemälde von Marc Helm gezeigt hat. Gut kam auch die gemeinsam mit dem Siebenbürgen-Institut konzipierte Schau musealer und archivalischer Neuzugänge im Januar 2010 an.

Das Siebenbürgische Museum dokumentiert siebenbürgisch-sächsisches Leben in vielseitigen Ausdrucksformen. Wie wurden und werden diese Sammelbestände zusammengetragen?

Das Siebenbürgische Museum auf Schloss Horneck verwaltet einen beeindruckenden Objektbestand von annähernd 16000 Zeugnissen siebenbürgischer Kultur und Geschichte im Karpatenbogen. Diese sind in einem halben Jahrhundert hier zusammengetragen wurden. Es sind größtenteils Schenkungen und in diesem Zusammenhang beeindruckt mich immer wieder das Verantwortungsbewusstsein der siebenbürgischen Gemeinschaft in Deutschland, von Menschen, die ihre persönlichen Familienschätze statt sie zu horten oder auf Kunstauktionen zu versteigern, unserem Hause anvertrauen.

Seit Beginn der 1990er Jahre unterstützt das Bundesinnenministerium und in seiner Nachfolge der Bundesbeauftragte für Kultur und Medien substantiell die Ankaufpolitik des Museums, wobei wertvolle Exponate erworben werden.

Als eine zukunftssichernde Errungenschaft in meiner Amtszeit bewerte ich die Gründung eines Fördervereins für das Museum am 8. November 2002. Nach anfänglichen Schwierigkeiten hat sich der Verein, an dessen Spitze seit 2005 der Landtagsabgeordnete Dr. Bernhard Lasotta wirkt, zu einem Segen für das Museum erwiesen. So konnten mit Geldern des Fördervereins unbürokratisch und flexibel Werke der klassischen Moderne in Siebenbürgen auf Auktionen erstanden werden. Zuletzt hat dieser über 120 historische "Tanzordnungen" aus der Hannenheim-Sammlung in Hermannstadt angekauft.

Welche Schwerpunkte setzt das Museum, um den Sammlungsbestand zu ergänzen?

Die Sammlungsbereiche wurden in Gundelsheim nach überliefertem Muster eines volkskundlich-kulturgeschichtlichen Museums angelegt-ländliches wie städtisches Kunstgewerbe, soll heißen "Volkskunst" im weitesten Sinne (Haustextilien und Trachten, bemalte Möbel, Keramik und Glas), Zinn und Goldschmiedekunst, in Ansätzen auch Handwerksgeschichte, darüber hinaus bildende Kunst, Geschichte und Memoria, Fotografie. Woran es dem Museum zur Veranschaulichung historischen sächsischen Lebens fehlte, waren Gebrauchsgegenstände wie etwa geflickte Wäsche, altes Geschirr, Schuhe und vieles mehr. Darüber hinaus mangelte es an Objekten zur Schulgeschichte, zur städtischen Modekleidung und, ganz wichtig, an Exponaten aus dem Bereich des kirchliches Lebens.

120 siebenbürgische Tanzordnungen übergab Dr. Bernhard Lasotta, Vorsitzender des Fördervereins des Siebenbürgischen Museum (links), am 30. Juli der Vorsitzenden des Trägervereins, Dr. Irmgard Sedler, und dem Kustos Marius J. Tataru. Die Tanzordnungen wurden mit Geldern des Fördervereins angekauft. Foto: Werner Sedler

Bei meinen Feldforschungsaufenthalten in Siebenbürgen und Ungarn ging und geht es mir neben der wissenschaftlichen Recherche im Feld und in den Archiven immer auch um die Ergänzung der Sammlungen, speziell in den genannten Bereichen. Zu erwähnen ist hier das große Entgegenkommen seitens der evangelischen Landeskirche in Rumänien, des Landeskirchlichen Museums in Hermannstadt, einzelner Pfarrer und Presbyter, die uns geholfen haben, den Bereich kirchliches Leben in Gundelsheim expositional zu etablieren. Danken möchte ich dem Bundes- und Föderationsvorsitzenden Dr. Bernd Fabritius, dessen persönlicher Einsatz dem Museum erst kürzlich zur Dauerleihgabe eines Altars aus Siebenbürgen verholfen hat.

Zurzeit arbeite ich an einem Konzept, um Dinge und Wissen, das heißt materielle Zeugnisse und Informationen aus dem Alltagsleben der Sachsen in Deutschland, welche noch die Spuren siebenbürgischer Kulturmuster veranschaulichen könnten, ins Museum zu bringen: Ich denke beispielsweise an siebenbürgische Rezepte, Essverhalten im Kontext bundesdeutscher Fest- und Feiergelegenheiten.

Mit welchen Schwierigkeiten und Engpässen haben Sie zurzeit am meisten zu kämpfen?

Das Schwierige eines Museumsbetriebes liegt einerseits im Finanziellen und andererseits im Personellen, wobei eines das andere bedingt. In den neunziger Jahren arbeiteten im Siebenbürgischen Museum drei Wissenschaftler, eine Textilrestauratorin, drei Verwaltungsangestellte und ein Hausmeister. Seit Beginn des neuen Jahrtausends lastet die komplexe Museumsarbeit auf den Schultern eines einzigen Wissenschaftlers, der kuratorisch und konservatorisch den ganzen Ausstellungsbereich schultern muss, einer kompetenten Verwaltungsleiterin und eben dem Ehrenamt. In gemeinsamer Arbeit ist es uns gelungen, die spezifischen Aufgaben einer Institution mit wichtiger Öffentlichkeitswirkung ohne wesentliche Abstriche weiterzuführen, so dass das Haus sich vor allem über die zahlreichen Ausstellungen im regionalen wie überregionalen Bewusstsein bleibend verankern konnte.

Finanziell wurde und wird das Siebenbürgische Museum projektbezogen über den Bundesbeauftragten für Kultur und Medien gefördert. An dieser Stelle danke ich den Verantwortlichen im Ministerium für eine über ein Jahrzehnt dauernde gute Zusammenarbeit, für die Unterstützung wichtiger Museumsprojekte und Publikationen. Die niveauvolle, wissenschaftlichen Ansprüchen angemessene Arbeit im Museum hätte ohne finanzielle und kulturpolitische Unterstützung zum einen aus Bonn, zum anderen durch das Land Baden-Württemberg nicht geleistet werden können. Die gute Zusammenarbeit mit der Gundelsheimer Verwaltung, allen voran mit Bürgermeisterin Heike Schokatz trägt ihre Früchte in vielen Bereichen und schlägt sich auch in den Besucherzahlen nieder.

Es gilt hier gleichermaßen den Mitgliedern des Trägervereins zu danken, die vieles an Unterstützung, politischer, finanzieller wie wissenschaftlicher, mitgetragen haben. An vorderster Stelle steht hier der Verband der Siebenbürger Sachsen mit seinem früheren Bundesvorsitzenden Volker Dürr (bis 2007), dem heutigen Bundesvorsitzenden Dr. Bernd Fabritius und mit meiner Stellvertreterin im Trägerverein, Karin Servatius-Speck, die die wichtigen Probleme des Museums ohne viele Worte immer auch zu den Ihren gemacht haben. Nicht zuletzt geschah dies bei den eingangs erwähnten Verhandlungen zum Erhalt des Museums am Standort Gundelsheim. Dankend erwähne ich auch die unbürokratische finanzielle Unterstützung seitens des Verbandes beim Umbau der Sonderausstellungsräume auf Schloss Horneck. Besonders wichtig ist die Brückenfunktion zur Politik, die der Verband für das Museum leistet. Ebenso möchte ich dem Honterus-Verein, dem Hausherren der Ausstellungsräume unseres Museums, mit seinem Vorsitzenden Berndt Schütz für seine Unterstützung danken.

Im März 2011 wurden Sie als Vorsitzende des Siebenbürgischen Museums e.V. wiedergewählt. Mit welchen Vorhaben und Plänen treten Sie die neue, vierjährige Amtszeit an?

Anfang nächsten Jahres geht der langjährige Konservator des Museums, Marius Joachim Tataru, in den wohlverdienten Ruhestand. Es gilt, die Museumsarbeit hauptsächlich in guter Kontinuität personell und finanziell zu sichern und verstärkt auf bisher gepflegte Synergieeffekte mit den anderen siebenbürgischen Kulturinstitutionen in Gundelsheim zu setzen, gleichermaßen auf die Unterstützung durch die große siebenbürgische Gemeinschaft. Unabdingbar für das weitere qualitätsvolle Bestehen und Wirken des Siebenbürgischen Museums in Gundelsheim ist die Förderung nach §96 auch in Zukunft durch den Beauftragten der Bundesregierung für Kultur und Medien.

Vinyl Record Trivia

August 12 is Vinyl Record Day.

The first flat discs, called records, were produced in 1887 to be used in toys.

A vinyl record consists of a disc of polyvinyl chloride plastic, engraved on both sides with a single concentricspiralgroove.

The first vinyl records were produced in 1930. Beforethat, records were made from a brittle substancecontainingshellac.

The Beatles originally wanted to include a picture of Adolph Hitler on the iconic cover of theirSgt.Pepper'sLonely HeartsClubBand, butremoveditattheinsistence of Parlophone Records.

Record Industry, located in the Netherlands, is thelargestvinylpressing plant in the world. They can produce over 30,000 records per day.

One of the most valuable vinyl records is "That'll Be the Day" by The Quarrymen. Only one copy was made and has always been owned by Paul McCartney. It is valued at $200,000.

The Rolling Stones released the first album cover not to feature a band photograph with their 1968 album called "Beggars Banquet."

Long-playing records became the prevailing format in 1948, when Co lumbia Records

introducedthefirstsuccessful 12-inchdisc, allowing up to 30 minutes of playing time per side.

Gyrating movie seats will let you feel actors' movements in 3-D movies

At 50 specially equipped theaters, movie goers this summer will be able to feel actors' movements right in their seats.

Motions range from being pitched forward, backward or side to side and give the experience of a momentary freefall when a character jumps off a cliff. Seat controls let the viewer dial down the intensity of the movement, which at the highest setting can reach up to two times the acceleration caused by gravity.

Made by D-Box Technologies of Montreal, the seats are one more way theaters are moving to compete with home theater systems. The company has 70 installations worldwide and 50 in the United States. It aims to expand to 200 locations within a year and to 1,000 locations within four years, according to The Wall Street Jour-

Guy Marcoux, D-Box vice president of marketing, says it took 600 hours program to seats for "Fast Five." Engineers go through movies frameby-frame to create a "motion track", which is like a sound track and controls the seat.

For complex scenes, such as a character racing away from an explosion in a car while being shot at, a single frame could feature multiple motions simultaneously, and the D-Box chair would jar the viewer in all the appropriate direc-

Tickets for a movie with D-Box seats cost $8 more than a regular ticket but offer a unique experience.

2011 ATS FAMILY DAY at WALDAMEER PARK AND WATERWORLD

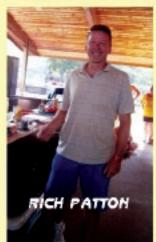

WINNERS OF DOOR PRIZES

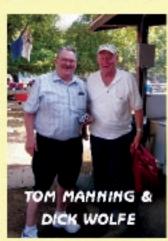

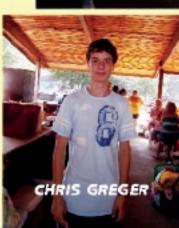

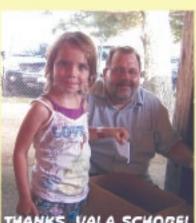

AT THE WATERPARK

The weather cooperated and we had a great day for both the amusement park rides and the waterpark. We had about 140 folks enjoy the day. ATS cities represented with Alliance, Cleveland, Erie, Lorain, New Castle, Salem and Youngstown.

THANKS, VALA SCHOBEL FOR ASSISTING WITH THE DRAWING

The Benedict Family really gets quite fancy when they picnic.
They even bring along chafing dishes! The food look delicious!

Jake Spor had a large group of family and friends. They were at the park especially early to make sure they were first in line for Waterworld.

Thanks for the photos Hanz and Tom!
